We are still waiting for some one to tell us what Brazil is to gain by withdrawing from the treaty recently celebrated with the United States, and what the result will be in case the latter country imposes import duties on Brazilian coffee, sugar and hides. It is idle to urge that trade will go on just the same—for it will not. The Americans will continue to drink Brazilian coffee of course, but in diminishing quantities becourse. will continue to drink Brazilian coffee of course, but in diminishing quantities because of its increased cost and of the increasing production of coffee elsewhere. It should be remembered that Mexico, Central America and Venezuela can easily fill up any gap which may be made by decreased importation from Brazil, and this is all the ways certain because of the remembers are made. importation from Brazil, and this is all the more certain because of the recent employment of American capital in coffee estates in those countries during the past few years. The next three years will most certainly see a very large increase in their coffee production. As for sugar and hides, the probabilities are that their exportation to the United States will disappear altogether. Brazilian sugar taxed can certainly not compete with Cuban sugar untaxed, assuming that Spain enters into such a treaty. The loss of the American market to Brazilian sugar will be an irreparable a treaty. The loss of the American market to Brazilian sugar will be an irreparable loss, almost a death blow to the industry. Of course we may be mistaken in all this, and for this reason we ask for some one to present the other view. Instead of denun-ciation and insinuation, we want argument. If the abrogation of the treaty is so desirable, then there must be some reason for it. We admit and have admitted its defects, We admit and have admitted its defects, but these might easily be corrected by a future agreement—that, for instance, of substituting free kerosene and lard for the 25 % abatements. But, whatever may be the reasons, let us have them stated! Many of the first objections have already been proved unfounded. As for the rest, let us have them in print, and have an end of this profitless warfare of insinuation and distrust. It will not be at all difficult to convince the Brazilian public that the Americans are actuated only by selfish and sinister motives and then secure the denunciation of the treaty, but it will not be so easy to establish the truth of such charges and the wisdom of the object in view.

It is cause for sincere regret to us that the editor the Jornal do Commercio finds it It is cause for sincere regret to us that the editor the Jornal do Commercio finds it impossible to carry on so impersonal a discussion as that of the treaty negotiations between Spain and the United States, without charging his opponents with bad laith and ignorance. If he can not accept a doubt or a denial without saying such things, then he will certainly find his journalistic path a very thorny one. In regard to his statements of the 2nd and 5th inst, we have to say that we have stated no more than facts, which he has subsequently corroborated himself. We stated that Foster was not American minister to Spain up to our latest mail advices from the United States, and that in February ex-Minister John W. Foster was in Florida on his way to Cuba. Our latest date from the United States is February 25th, and up to that day we have not found the slightest reference States is rebutany 25th, and up to that day we have not found the slightest reference to any proposal to send Mr. Foster to Spain. As we read about a dozen American papers, perhaps we may be excused from the charge of ignorance which the Jornal is politic enough to insinuate. It now appears from London papers just received that Mr. Foster, after a month in Cuba, left for Europe on March 11th. The well-informed Philadelphia correspondent of the London Times, it may be added, appears to have been almost as ignorant of the business as we were, for he was compelled to telegraph: "It is each that he is going on a mission to assist most as ignorant of the business as we were, for he was compelled to telegraph: "It is said that he is going on a mission to assist the American minister in Madrid." And yet, on the and the Jornal had the face to say that "months ago everyone who has American newspapers knew perfectly well that the Washington government was arranging to make use of the experience and zeal of Mr. Foster in this transaction." It appears, however, that everyone did not know this, not even in the United States. However, it transpires that Mr. Foster has at last got where the Jornal wants him, but, if the Gazeta de Noticas is well informed, he has not yet succeeded in obtaining the t exty. Mr. Foster, it must be confessed, dir ppointed us agreeably by getting back from Cuba and crossing over to Madrid much more quickly than we considered much more quickly than we considered likely, and it may also turn out that the onkely, and it may also turn out that the Spanish government will also confuse us by moving much more quickly in this matter than it has ever done before. Should this prove to be the case, the Jornal will permit us to state that our satisfaction over the success of Mr. Blaine's reciprocity police. the success of Mr. Blaine's reciprocity policy will quite reconcile us to the embarrassment having published an incorrect opinion.

HAPPILY the rain came at last on Sunday and there are good reasons for hoping that the summer has been broken and that the epidemic of fever will now begin to decline. Rio has more than once experienced a much worse epidemic than that which has that very few indeed have shown a more malignant type. Had the fever appeared earlier in the summer we should not have escaped so easily. While the memories of it are still fresh in mind we want to ask two askers exercises of the sanitary authorities. or three questions of the sanitary authorities or three questions of the sanitary authorities and then recall the attention of our small colony of foreign residents to the necessity of doing something for themselves. In the first place, we wish to ask the board of health what it has gained by suppressing street watering. It has added largely to our discomfort, and has apparently failed to relieve us from fever. Since the suppression of this most useful and beneficial service we of this most useful and beneficial service we have had two bad epidemics. And then, in the second place, is the board of health satisfied that the sanitary and hospital services of this city are what they should be? vices of this city are what they should be? Many of the crowded localities of the city a.e. still in a very bad san'tary condition, food is dear, and the water supply dange ously insufficient. If the costs of living increase, or even remain what they are, the conditions of the poor must either be materially improved or we shall see them suffer inde-cribable privations the first or second summer hence. As for the hospital service, we can not believe that there is another civilized capital the world where such stories could be current without rousing its population to a frenzy of insuch stories could be current without rousing its population to a frenzy of indignation. We do not say that these stories are true; we can not believe they are true. But when charges are made that patients are put into their coffins before they are dead, and that new patients are put into beds from which the dead have just been taken, it certainly warrants a prompt and thorough inquiry. The apathy with which these reports are received, is certainly far from creditable to the commonest sentiments of hunamity in any people. In view, therefore, of the necessities of the foreign residents of this city, both as to nurses and hospital, is it not time that another effort should be made to time that another effort should be made to obtain what almost every other similar colony possesses? Even a modest beginning is better than the absolute lack which we are compelled to experience every epid

DUTIES UNDER THE AMERICAN TREATY

TREATY

On the 31st ult. the minister of finance addressed the following communication to the inspector of customs at this port:

"I acknowledge the receipt of the communication of the inspector of customs of Rio de Janeiro, No. 192, of the 23rd inst., in which he asks whether exemption from duties, granted by Art. 1 of Decree No. 1338, of Feb. 5th, to American goods to be withdrawn from the custom-house on and after April 1st, applies to such as are already disclarged and stored in the custom-house, and whether in this exemption is included the fee of 5 % mentioned in Art. 575 of the Digest of Customs Laws.

"In answer thereto I state to the inspector, for the due effect, that in view of the clear and peremptory provision contained in § 1 of Art. 181 of said Digest, goods imported from the United States, mentioned in Art. 1 of the Decree of Feb. 5th, are entitled to the favor conceded in this article, provided they are withdrawn from the custom-house on or after April 1st, whatever may be the date in which they shall have been imported or deposited in the custom-house.

"As to the fees, their nature is not similar to that of import duties and, as they are not mentioned in that decree, the matter will continue to be regulated by Art. 5 of the preliminary provisions of the tariff,—F. de dencar draripe."

It may not be amiss to call attention to the above so far as it relates to the 5% expediente imposed on imports admitted free of duty. This tax is not levied for port or light dues, nor for the labor employed in handling the goods. It is also too high to serve for "administration." It is, in our opinion, a general rate of duty levied on free goods water another name and this free goods under another name, and this being the case it is open to question whether the tax can be maintained under the treaty

THE CHICAGO EXPOSITION.

On Saturday last President Deodoro gave a formal reception to the two special com-missioners designated by the President of the United States to represent in this country the Columbian Exposition, to be held in Chicago in 1893. In presenting these in Chicago in 1893. In presenting these commissioners, Capt. Alexander Rodgers, U. S. A., and Lieut. Frank E. Sawyer, U. S. N., Minister Conger addressed the President in the following words:

Mr. President

Mr. President:

I am afforded genuine pleasure in the honor of presenting to you the distinguished American citizens Captain Alexander Rodgers, of the United States army, and Lieut. Frank E. Sawyer, of the United States navy. They have been designated by the President of the United States as special commissioners to the republic of Brazil in the interest of the World's Columbian Exposition which is to be held in the city of Chicago in 1803 in commemoration of the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America by Columbus, and have been, for the time being, attached to the Legation of the United States at this Capital.

Formal invitations have been extended to all the nations of the earth to join in the celebration of this pre-emment historic event, and already official acceptances are being received.

It was my pleasant duty some days since to transmit the President's cordial invitation to your government, and it is to be hoped that the youngest and the eldest sisters in the family of American republics may join hands in carnets co-operation, for the promotion of an enterprise which will not only fittingly commemorate one of the most important events in human history, but ought to materially strengthen the bonds of friendship and mutual interest which already unite our governments and people and toward which better aquaintance and more intimate relations will surely tend.

These officers have been instructed to co-operate with you and your government, in the furtherance of whatever part you may desire or be willing to take in this memorable occasion, and they will be ready at any tume to furnish all necessary information concerning the Exposition to the officers of your government, or to your people.

I commend them to you, confidently hoping that from their mission, and from the Columbian Exposition which they represent, much mutual good will result to the two great American republics.

In his reply President Deodoro expressed his cordial good wishes for the success of the

In his reply President Deodoro expressed In his reply President Deodoro expressed his cordial good wishes for the success of the enterprise and an earnest desire that Brazil may be properly represented, as a means of strengthening the bond uniting the two great American republics. As the part to be taken by Brazil must be governed by the action of Congress he could take no definite step until the required legislation could be obtained, but in the meantime the governstep until the required legislation could be obtained, but in the meantime the government would render every possible assistance to the commissioners and would place the services of an attaché at their disposal.

Capt. Rodgers then explained the objects of their mission more in detail. He said

From this table (B) it will be seen that, of the total average importations into Brazil of $38,631,-242 70 of said articles, the United States have here-tofore furnished articles to the value of only $2,035,899, while other countries have furnished articles to the value of $56,595,343 70.

Taking the two schedules together, it is shown that, of a total annual importation into Brazil of $58,055,184 26 of all these articles, only $5,430,532 came from the United States, as against $53,204,659 46 from other countries.

In return for these concessions the United States admits into its markets free of duty sugar, molasses, coffee and hides, the growth and product of Brazil. Respectfully submitted. From this table (B) it will be seen that,

IMMIGRATION.

Rio de Janeiro, 30th March 1891.

To the Editor :

To the Editor:

Dear Sir, — With a view to the dissemination of the truth I ask the favor of an insertion of the following particulars, for which I can vouch.

About the latter end of January of the present year amongst the emigrants brought to Rio de Janeiro were William Grant and his wite, both natives of the Emerald Isle; this couple on arrival were sent to the emigrants island in accordance with the regulations then in vogue. A few days passed when Mrs. Grant complained of being unwell, saying that she wished to lie in. She was sent to the hospital and was about to change her attire for hospital and was about to change her attire for hospital clothing when, before she did so, the wished her husband to be sent for. The authorities declined to permit the man to enter the women's ward, upon which Grant ordered his wife to come out and go over to the city. At the time of the steam launch leaving the island they were permitted to cross over to the city. A few days after, I saw them and the wife carried a baby in her arms. I cannot say with any certainty whether the child was born on the Ilha das Flores, or in the city, but according to all I could learn of the matter the child was born perfectly healthy and strong. Owing to exposure and want of nourishment the child only lived a few days. The father, in order to obtain burial for it, was compelled to carry the little body in his arms to the Misericordia Hospital, but in consequence of some flaw in the proceeding the father was informed that nothing could be done for him there, and he was sent forth with his ghastly burden to patrol the streets. Some gentlemen took the matter in hand, and by a little pressure, the body was finally burden. The father, whatever he might have been before, from that time never held up his head, took to drink and so forth. A situation was obtained for them, the man as gardener and the wife as nurse and to make herself generally handy. They kept that situation just four days, leaving at their own request and came over to the city, since which time they lived upon the benevolent until her husband died of yellow fever on the 21st inst. On the 27th inst. I had the pleasure of taking the widow on hoard the s.s. Airaca, her passage to England being paid by subscription. Mrs. Grant, just previous to my leaving her, begged me to convey her heartfelt thanks to the several captains and gentlemen who from time to time assisted her, also to those who kindly raised the subscription which supplied the necessary funds to pay passage money and incidental expenses till she arrives at her home. The following is the account of the subscription and the mode of its application:

which I hand over to Mr. M.

By way of coordusion, permit me to ask a very pertinent question: how does the Brazilian or the British government benefit by such transactions as this in matters of emigration? If the above mentioned governments do not benefit, who is responsible for the lives of this man and child?

Yours truly,

—The Fornal de Minas thinks that the first act of the Minas legislature, after organizing, should be to elect the president of the state, and that the president of elected should only govern for a term long enough to enable his successor to be elected by the people. The Minas and Rio representative seems to have surrendered his case at discretion.

—The receipts of the railways belonging to the Companhia Geral system (ex-Leopoldina) were 1,502,000$ in January and February against 971, 104$ in the corresponding period of 1890. The indebtedness of the company amounts to 140,300,000$ and it is negotiating in London for a loan of ∫22,000,000. We are advised by competent men that the company is permitting its tracks and rolling stock to depreciate to a dangerous degree through unwillingness to spend money in repairs.

EMPREZA GERAL DE ESTRADAS

On the 2nd the shareholders of this company met to hear a statement from the directory in ex planation of the resignation of the president of the company, Barão de Ipanema. The vice-presiden read a statement of the condition of the company which may be briefly summarized as follows:

grants.

The Jatobá extension has an interest guarantee from the general government of 6 per cent, on 30,000$ por kilometre.

"By means of a convenient credit operation," the directors availed of the low price ruling for the Geral debentures to purchase 280,000 of these, which left a profit of 7,000,000$, which it is proposed to carry to an equalization of dividends fund.

For the first two months of 1890 and 1891 the receipts of the railway (excluding interest guarantees and rents) were 971,1048885 and 1,502.037$100, but the respective length of lines in traffic is not furnished. The Diario Popular, of the 30th ult., is informed by a person who has recently visited some of the coftee districts of S. Paulo, that the next coffee crop in that state will reach 3,500,000 bags, and that within five years the annual production of coffee in the state will amount to 8,000,000 bags.

LOCAL NOTES

-Councillor Leoncio de Carvalho has been ap-pointed director of the S. Paulo law school.

--Gen. Deodoro has received the decoration non Bolivar from the Venezuelan government —The Diario de Noticias asks President Deodoro to dismiss his ministers. Would it not be well to wait until he has appointed them?

—At a meeting of twenty congressmen on the night of the 2nd inst., it was resolved to organize a party to be called "constitutional republican."

—Dr. Alberto Torres, an original republican, thinks that the present government is the most moometent and dishonest one the country has ever had.

—It is stated that the chief of police is going to try to put a stop to the sale of lottery tickets in the street. If we are not mistaken, the same effort has been made before.

—Aristides the Just thinks that the S. Paulo republicans would better employ their time, if, instead of quarrelling among themselves, they would unite and try to save the republic.

—The government has annulled the exclusive privilege, granted by ex-minister of agriculture Gen. Glycerio to A. A. Leite Penteado, for the application of pita to industrial purposes.

—Capt. Alves Barbosa, director of the work-shops of the navy-yard, will leave shortly for the United States for the purpose of purchasing im-proved machinery and engaging skilled workmen.

—The Correio Paulistano publishes the report that acting General Chermont has tendered his res-ignation of the portfolio of foreign affairs and that he will be succeeded by Dr. Miranda Azevedo of S. Paulo.

S. Fauto.

—The lectures at the Gloria school are going to be revived. The opening lecture will be deliver-ed on the second Sunday in May by ex-Senator Pereira da Silva and will relate to the subject of the discovery of America.

—The proprietors of the Jornal do Commercio propose to resist compulsory registration of their lands in the Torrens Urbano, a private company authorized to do an important public service by that eminent financier Ruy Barbosa.

—It is reported that the government is going to close the military school. It is also reported that it is going to send the troops out of Ro and gar-rison the city with the national guard. The same report was circulated in regard to the Ouro Preto cabinet—and teld to a revolution.

—A decree dated on the 2nd settled once for all the military honors to be shown the D the military honors to be shown the Brazilian authorities, military and civil, under every conceivable circumstance. It may be said that the requirements do not show a very keen appreciation of "republican simplicity."

"Sevential offers have been made to the muni-cipal council of this city for the lease of the abat-tor at Santa Cruz. One of these proposals offers the council the sum of 300,000$ per annum for 10 years. The council will meet day after to-morrow to take the matter into consideration.

The editors of the Gazeta da Tarde have de-clared in court that, in speaking of Major Baldo-mero Carqueja, reporter of the Jornal do Com-mercia, as a "man of resources," it was not their intention to insinuate that he obtained news by improper means from the public departments.

—The total number of deaths in this city in the month of January was 1,156 and in February 1,401. This shows an average of over 37 a day in January, or an annual average of 36 per 1000. For February the daily average was 50 and the annual average 48 per 1000. We assume an estimated population of 380,000.

esumated population of 380,000.

—Aristides the Just complains bitterly of the congressmen who, thinking they had their states under their thumbs, refused to vote for changing Gen. Cesario's electoral law. That law, says Aristides, was excellent under the provisional government, but very bad under the permanent government.

The police delegado charged with the investigation of the mysterious shooting of a tram driver in the Travessa do Ferreira on the 24th ult., has discovered the criminal in a soldier of the 7th infantry, named Joaquim José de Souza, who had had a quarrel with a conductor and driver that morning. The assassination was evidently instigated by a savage desire for revenge, and in seeking it he shot the wrong men. A warrant has been formally issued, although the assassin is under arrest at the barracks.

—The American company has resolved to grant a 50% abatement on all goods shipped on its steamers for the Exposição Permanente Universal do Brazil.

—It is announced that measures are to be taken to prevent the use of our mounted police patrols in services outside their regular duties. We may hope from this that less frequent attacks on civilians will result.

The curb-stone brokers are back again in their old quarters in Rua da Alfandega, to the interruption of traffic and the annoyance of the business houses and banks of that locality. Why can not the police stop the imposition?

—It is to be noted that the thieves are becoming bold enough to attack people in the public parks in open day. A case occurred in the Campo Sant'. Anna on Sunday last, an Italian being seized and held by two men while a third rifled his pockets.

The minister of the interior wants the opinion of his colleague of finance on the proposal to widen and extend the Rua Nova do Ouvidor according to a contract celebrated between our city fathers and the Companhia Alvenaria, Cantaria e Construcções.

—Baño de Lucena seems to consider the Supreme Court subordinate to the department of justice. On the 3rd inst., he wrote to the president of that court approxing his act in regard to the collection of fees. Does an act which the Supreme Court is legally authorized to perform, require the approval of the minister of justice?

—Our April 1st some way caused to be published in the Gasela de Noticias a card purporting to be from Deputy José Avelino and declaring that this Deputy had gone into opposition and resigned his seat in congress. It is needless to say that this jest caused much astonishment and no little sensation.

—The Jornal of the 2nd says that all who have American journals knew perfectly well months ago that the Washington government proposed to utilize the experience and zeal of Mr. J. W. Foster in treaty negotiations with Spain. The editor of the Jornal evidently intended this item for his issue of the preceding day.

The Diario Offical, in its issue of the 3rd inst. defending the act of the government annulling contracts made without its permission for the sale of property belonging to religious orders, takes the ground that no constitutional provision contrary to laws previously in force is valid until those laws have been expressly repealed by an ordinary legislative enactment. The constitution, therefore, is not the supreme law of the land.

—We trust that some good friend of Dr. Antonio Prado, who is writing letters in Europe about the advantages which Brazil offers to the immigrant, will call his attention to the sufferings of those who arrive here in the hot season. About half of the deaths in this city are classified as 'indigentes' a great part of whom are poor immigrants. It is no better than murder to send immigrants here in the hot season and during an epidemic.

the hot season and during an epidemic.

—A propose to the report, since contradicted, that the government had ordered guard-houses to be constructed at the Military School for imprisoning insubordinate cadets, the Correio do Paro asks; "Does it not seen that we are still in the time of João Alfredo and Ouro Preto?" To this the Pharol of Juiz de Fóra answers that it does not, that on the contrary João Alfredo and Ouro Preto favored insubordination in that school by taking no measures to prevent the teaching of revolutionary doctrines at the expense of the public treasury.

—A biographical notice of one of Rio's "succudoctrines at the expense of the public treasury.

—A biographical notice of one of Rio's "speculator" princes recently published in a weekly journal may be translated as follows: "The honored citizen secured his independence, thanks to his honest and praiseworthy labor. He was the middle of company, and incorporator of companies, and of some banks." The talies are ours. It is to be noted that care was given to enumerate the companies the "honored citizen" organized, but the biographer "gave it up" when it came to the banks, probably because his space was limited.

the banks, probably because his space was limited.

—It was quite touching yesterday to see the joy unconfined which welcomed the return of Dr. Mello Barreto to the presidency of the company which operates the Leopoldina and other railways under the title of Companhia Geral. There were green leaves all over the premises, a band of music, champagne ad lib., congratulations and enthusiastic embraces. It made one feel that the Jews had all returned to Jerusalem. Those who know how admirably the old Leopoldina was managed, will join the directory in drinking champagne and sending up rockets. up rockets.

—From present appearances the lawyers are to make a rich harvest out of stock exchange difficulties. The time has now come for the government to decree, or legislate, or something, and give the stock exchange control of its operations. The brokers should be enabled to choose their own colleagues, to suspend these in case of necessity, and to post the names of defaulters in their assembly room. The courts of law should have no jurisdiction in speculative stock operations, any more than they have in "backing" horses on a race course.

—On the 24th ulto, the minister of finance ordered that the sale of the Quinta at the Ponta de Cajú be cancelled, amicably if possible, but cancelled in any case. An Empreza Edificadora had secured the property without any competition, and the wonder is Gen. Araripe did not propose to hold Gen. Barbosa responsible for it. On the 5th the latter published two or three columns of explanation in the Diario de Noticias, in which he claims that he was not responsible to former laws for his actions. It must be confessed that the eminent financier acted up to that belief fully.

—On the 2nd the Diasio do Commercio announced that liquidations due on the 31st ulto. had been transferred to July. The safest manner of transferring liquidations would be to mark the Kalendas Gregas as settlement day.

Gregar as settlement day.

The receipts at the Rio custom-house in March were 4,885,938*750, against 5,768,6378827 for the same month last year. The March receipts of internal revenue were 1,850,587$731 and 762,-38$606 respectively.

On the 30th ulto, the Banco do Brazil e Londres was formally organized and Barão do Ladario, Lourenço Cavalcanti de Albuquerque, Dr. Joaquin Marques da Cruz and Antono Finheiro Lobo de Menezes Juramenha were elected directors.

—The Banco Popular has deposited in the treasury 3,500 bonds as a guarantee for a new issue of notes. The bonds were obtained from the Banco da Republica. This bank is working hard to improve the aesthetic tastes of the country by issuing gill-covered notes.

—The minister of finance maintains the act of the to improve the assitute lastes of the country by issuing gil-covered notes.

—The minister of finance maintains the act of the internal revenue bureau of this city refusing to accept the certificate of the Banco de Penhores e Descontos to the deposit of 20% of the capital of 500,000$ of the Banco Sportivo. The refusal to accept the certificate was founded on the fact of its not being signed by the government supervisor.

—There have been many reports afloat as to what action the Treasury will take to put out a part of the gold that has been going into its coffers from the custom-houses. The supposition is that one of more banks will be employed to place the gold in circulation, but why does the Treasury not call for tenders and dispose of its bullion to the highest bidder?

—By the str. Thames arrived here.

—By the str. Thames arrived here on the 31st ulto. 283,150 in gold were received. It is reported that the Treasury is sending gold back to England, and in consequence we are observing exactly what we stated would be the case; gold coming here to pay duties and going back to meet obligations. It would certainly be more business like to make the transfers by bills of exchange. There can be only one explanation for the action of the Treasury; the minister is afraid of going into the exchange market.

—The Banou União de São Paulo has the distinction of the distinction of the control of the con exchange market.

—The Banco União de São Paulo has the distinction of initiating among the new banks the practice of calling in notes with a penalty of repudiation if they are not presented within a certain period. The notes called in are of the denomination of 100$, and the period marked is six months from the 1st inst. After September 30th the notes are to be considered without value. The practice is scandalously dishonest, and when Brazil gets an independent judiciary we want to see its legality tested.

independent judiciary we want to see its legality tested.

—In the second fortnight of March there was a considerable decline in shares of all kinds except those of long established banks and companies. The premium on the shares of the Banco Pariz e Rio fell from 688 to 388, that on the shares of the Banco Boro-Americano from 90$ to 10$ and that on the shares of the Banco Rio e Estados from 40$ to 20$. The shares of the Banco Rio e Estados from 40$ to 20$. The shares of the Banco da Republica fell from 20$ to 20$, those of the Empreza Industrial de Melhoramentos from 180$ to 131$. and those of the Metropolitana Paulista from 88$ to $$$$. The premium on the shares of the União Industrial dos Estados fell from 10$ to 50$. In consequence of the advantageous contracts made with the government and the Banco da Republica by the Banco do Brazil, the latter's shares rose from 300$ to 390$. Those of the Banco do Commercio rose from 200$ to 27$$. It is stated that the greater part of the settlements due at the end of March were transferred to the end of April. When these continually transferred settlements are to be finally liquidated no one seems to know.

—The Banco Metropolitano do Brazil has no less than seven directors. At 1,000$ per month for each, the handsome annual sum of 84,000$ is reached.

—On the 4th a fusion of the Iniciadora de Melhoramentos e Viação do Rio Grande do Sul companies was decided. A bank is to result from this fusion.

—Much is to be expected from the committee of bankers now engaged in straightening up the financial position here? If the men on the committee do not know all about the matter, no one can; for every one of them has been in direct contact with the wicked speculation raging here, and some perhaps, interested in it. We do not believe any serviceable results are to be obtained—unless it is decided to precipitate a general liquidation.
