RIO DE JANEIRO, SEPTEMBER 8th, 1891.

Ir the present unhealthy condition of Ir the present unhealthy condition of this city continues into the hot season, we may consider it a certainty that we have a very bad year before us. It is unusual for two bad seasons to come together, but the chances are that this year is destined to be an exception to the rule. At the present moment we are in the midst of a severe small-pox epidemic, and the hospitals are all overcrowded. In the Misericordia there are not beds enough to accompadate the are not beds enough to accommodate the sick and they are accordingly distributed about on the floors. The small-pox hospitals were overflowing long ago, and God only knows what becomes of the surplus. The situation is really alarming, the streets are filled with funeral processions, the small-pox death rate is about 30 a day, and there are no signs whatever of an improvethere are no signs whatever of an improvement. The board of health is utterly incapable of meeting the emergency, the municipal council is indifferent, the press is silent, and the people are apathetic. In view of the strong probabilities of a bad summer, something should certainly be done to arouse the city and health authorities to a realization of the serious danger which threatens us. The streets are abominably dirty, out of repair and crowded, the tenement houses are overflowing with immigrants and paupers, the water-supply is insufficient and is being shamelessly wasted, food is dear, the water-front bathing-places for the poor are being shamelessly wasted, food is dear, the water-front bathing-places for the poor are being closed up, and the crowded condition of the city is making all its bad features worse. There is no concealing the fact that the outlook is daily growing more and more ominous. In view of all this we can not urge too strongly upon our foreign exchanges to use every effort to stop emigration to this port at once, and to warn everyone to keep away after November next. We saw enough of death among our foreign population during the past year and have no wish to see it repeated. and have no wish to see it repeated.

Although the contracts with many of the railway companies who enjoy (?) government guarantees expressly stipulate that the fiscal engineer appointed by the government will be paid by the same, an effort is now being made to shift the cost—and something over—upon the companies themselves. In some two or three cases the express in In some two or three cases the expense in itself would be no burden upon the companies, but in many others it adds so considerably to the working expenses of badly located and unprofitable lines that it cannot be borne without sacrifice on the part of shareholders. Aside from this, however, are the legal and moral questions of im-posing a charge upon these companies from which they are specially exempted in their contracts. If the question could be referred to an impartial court, there is no doubt as to what decision would be rendered, but in the absence of such a court, and in the absence of any clear sense of fidelity to an agreement on the part of Brazilian officials, there is no other power to appeal to but that of public opinion. In the end it is more than probable that diplomatic interference will be invoked, but it is better in every sense to have the dispute settled every sense to have the dispute settled honestly and justly by Brazilians themselves. And it is so simple a question that there ought to be neither delay nor doubt in the decision. Given an express contract to the effect that a company shall not be charged with the expenses of fiscalization, on the with the expenses of inscandation, on the one side, and an attempt, on the other, to enforce a fixed charge of  $\mathcal{L}_{1,500}$ , say 15,000\$, when the salary paid is only about one-third that sum, the decision can not be deabtful. It may be distincted that doubtful. It may not be disputed that it was a mistake for the government to assume such an obligation, but as it was assumed, and voluntarily, it is an obligation which cannot be legally and morally set aside by either party without the consent of the other. The Brazilian government has too long acted upon the idea that its contracts are binding only upon the other party, and it is full time that so one-sided and unjust a practice should be set aside forever. It should not be forgotten that a breach of contract, or an act of bad faith, is just as reprehensible in a government as in an individual.

THE editor of the Correio do Povo think that it will be a "day of marvels" when The Rio News has a word of encourage "day of marvels" when ment and comfort for the men now direct ing the affairs of this country—and we are not sure but what he is quite right. It will surely be a "day of marvels" when these men deserve such a word. If our contemporary had been in the habit of reading our criticisms of public affairs regularly, instead of taking offence at one article on the May-rink-Figueiredo controversy and one little rink-Figueiredo controversy and one little comment on the surprising philanthropy recently developed by Henrique de Car-valho, he would have known that we have always advocated justice for the Brazilian people, and have always upheld republican institutions. It does not follow from this, however, that we must accept the abomin-able theories and schemes of Messrs, May-rink and Ruy Barbosa for the sacrifice of this country to a great banking and industhis country to a great banking and industrial monopoly, nor that we should applaud bad bank management as good, nor that we should accept a very feeble and crippled imitation of a republic as the genuine article. Republican by birth, instinct and education, we have nothing to learn on that subject from a man who was yesterday a monarchist, is to-day a republican (so-called) and will be to-morrow—anything that pays best. When the republican movement began after the abolition of slavery, we frankly expressed our opinion against it, for we saw no chance for such a government in a country where nine-tenths of the population are helplessly poor and illiterate, and where the people are totally in-experienced in self-government—and thus far we have found no reason for changing that opinion. When we get through the period marked by the Ruy Barbosa and Glycerio concessions, the Torres port scheme, the Tibuna aflair, the Metropolitana concession, etc., we may possibly enter another where the good citizens will come out of their retirement for an honest attempt to make this government a republic in reality as well as in name, and then, we can assure the Correio, there will be encouraging words enough in these columns to suit any would-be tribune of the suffering poor

THE Portuguese legend has it that every man knows his own business best, and we may be exceeding our duties in calling the attention of Brazilian shareholders to a matter that is not of international interest. The fact is so crying a shame, however, that the inexperienced Brazilian operator in "fancy" stocks should excuse the inter-ference. What we desire to call attention to is the sudden determination of directors to reduce the capital of banks and companies as a means of relieving shareholders from further calls for capital, and which de-termination appears to be generally considered a very virtuous act on the part of the directors, to be received with enthusiasm by the shareholders. We maintain that it is no such thing. The directors of the "wild" cat" banks and companies were either their incorporators, or the creatures of these; and participated in the unholy—if not illegal— profits drained from the shareholders for incorporation expenses, and we maintain further the shareholders should therefore oblige these harpies to return at least that onlige these narpies to return at least that part of their percentages on incorporation expenses which is not represented by capital actually paid up. We are perfectly aware that a contract is binding. If in a moment of hallucination a number of men voted a few speculators 5 per cent on a capital of 20,000,000$, and this capital is afterwards reduced to 10,000,000$, the law is not called upon to protect them; they must accept the consequences of their acts. A gentle appeal, however, to the men who have pocketed thousands of contos for the incorporation of these companies might prove efficacious, but if the argument does not convince, then let the statements of incorporation expenses be laid before the public The sudden determination of directors to determination of directors to reduce capital is not to be ascribed to any desire to relieve shareholders; these gentle-men, who as a rule draw 1,000$ per month use the company's money in private ulations, find that the shareholders are and speculations, find that the shareholders are not to be bled further, and in a burst of philanthrophy they say to these unfortunate lunatics that they will reduce the capital by half, or to whatever extent may be sary, without the slightest reference to the commission someone captured when the capital was twice or three times that actually fixed. If there be no resource for shareholders except scandal, we really I that in such case scandal is justifiable. we really believe

According to the hasty conclusion of a correspondent of one of our Argentine ex-changes, "the United States has much to answer for in the misgovernment of the Latin nations of the new world." It is a answer for the image of the new world." It is a conclusion so frequently advanced by men who disapprove of the methods and practices of South American governments, and is fruitful of so much unjust comment on the error should be corrected. The American people are no more to blame for the crimes and misgovernment of these South American countries than the founders of the Christian religion are for the excesses, bloodshed and vices of the church in later periods. The American colonies inherited the laws, customs and traditions of the English people, in which a large measure of self-government had been developed. Their surroundings and circumstances led to a further development of these purely English ideas, and when their struggle for independence was ended the natural result was the supremacy of an ideal in which the largest measure of popular liberty compatible with law and order was secured to the people. to the people These people were trained to respect and obey the law and to seek redress from abuses by legal means, and the result has been what the world now knows. The re-publican system is not free from abuses and disorders. nor ever will be until human disorders, nor ever will be until human nature itself undergoes a very considerable transformation. With such a people, in-fluenced by such traditions and governed by so profound a respect for law, the republic is not only possible, but it is for them the highest and best form of government. That the United States should have imitators, and that these imitations should be disastrous failures, certainly reflects no blame upon that country. Every nation must decide for itself what its own form of government shall be. If it chooses one that is unsuitable to the temperament and habits of its people, then it can blame no one but itself. The example and success of the United States has undoubtedly exercised a strong influence upon the Spanish colonies of the new world and has led them to try an exnew world and has led them to try an ex-periment for which their people were totally unfitted, and which has in every case re-sulted most disastrously. And we now have one more and the last effort at imita-tion in Brazil, which, we deeply regret to say, at this moment promises no better re-sult. The success of a republic depends upon a large measure of education, upon habits of self restraint, upon traditions and experience in self government, upon a pro-found respect for law, and upon the habit of punishing infractions of the law by officials themselves. When these conditions can be said to exist in South America, then the chances of a republic will be good. Until that time, however, we may expect imita-tions of every kind and description, and failures of every character and degree.

REV. CHARLES P. WINTER.

REV. CHARLES P. WINYER.

Through the kindness of a lady who has been in correspondence with the family and friends of the late Rev. Charles P. Winter, we are permitted to publish the following extract from a letter from one of his former parishioners:

"I think it possible that you and others in Rio may like to know what is being done here to perpetuate the memory of our dear friend Charles Winter. I therefore send you some cuttings from our Parish Magazine which will shew what we are trivine to do. I hope the memorial may take the may like to know what is being done nere to perpetuate the memory of our dear friend Charles Winter. I therefore send you some cuttings from our Parish Magazine which will shew what we are trying to do. I hope the memorial may take the form of a stained glass window in the chancel.
There are to be similar memorials at Winslow and at St. Peter's, Leicester, where our beloved friend has preached lenten courses and endeared himself to all who knew him."

One of the magazine cuttings referred to contains the following tribute to the memory of Mr.
Winter in the section devoted to Ashton parish:
"The news of the death of the Rev. Charles Philip Winter, which took place at Rio de Janeiro on the 3rd of June, cast a deep gloom over our parish.

Philip Winter, which took place at Rio de Janeiro on the grad of June, cast a deep gloom over our parish.

"How general was the esteem and affection in which our dear friend was held was manifested by the large number who came to the special memorial services on Friday, June 19th, when there were 15 communicants at the celebration at 7,30 a.m., and a large congregation—including many friends from neighbouring parishes at Evensong. At this latter service a most impressive sermon was preached by the Rev. A. J. Miller, Rector of Wootton, from part of 2 Kings ii. 15. As Mr., Miller said, the best and highest tribute we can give to our missioner's memory is to try to follow his example, which we all acknowledge was a noble one, and to work out in our lives the lessons which he taught us so forcibly and yet so lovingly. But it is only right that our little church, for which he often expressed his love, where he preached the old truths of the gospel so powerfully and with auch abundant fruit, and where at the holy table he celebrated the "holy mysteries," instituted and ordained by Christ Himself, should contain some fitting memorial of his life and work. Steps will shortly be taken towards providing such a memorial; meantime we shall be glad to receive subscriptions towards it from Mr. Winter's friends."

LEGISLATIVE NOTES

August 28.—Senate.—Senator Paes de Carvalho spoke in favor of the amnesty bill from the Chamber of Depaties, although he thinks that the author of the bill was perhaps somewhat precipitate in presenting it. One of the reasons why he favors the bill is that in the attempted revolution in Pará there are involved many persons who knew not what they were doing. Another reason, he says, is that the laws of the country in relation to such crimes are far too mild, and he thinks it better not to punish at all than to punish too lightly. Under the circumstances it is best, he says, to endeavor to remove as speedily as possible all traces of the revolutionary movement. Chamber of Deputies.—Deputies Gabino Besouro and Otticica offered a motion inquiring what the government intends doing to prevent conflicts between the people and the soldiery in the state of Alagoas, It is stated in the motion that the attack on the Patria priling-office in Maceió is attributed to soldiers of the 26th hattalion of infantry. Deputy Martinho Prado, in offering a motion of inquiry in relation to government grants, said that he had at first supported the present ministry, hoping that it would remedy the evils caused by the first ministers of the provisional government, and for a while it seemed that such was really the case. Unfortunately those evils continue to exist. He read a letter to prove that there was the utmost corruption in the public departments and alluded to the demand of 1,500,0005 from a company for the purpose of obtaining the signing of a decree within 48 hours. In answer to a remark from Deputy João de Siqueira, he said that he was accustomed to let no aspersion on his honor pass unnoticed and to resent an insult with physical force, if necessary. This deputy, he said, hed a contract for defending the government and he executed this contract in a manner that was extremely objectionable. Since Dr. Americo Brazilense had refused to accept a portfolio, the government, it seems, has adopted the policy of damaging the interests of the state of S. Paulo. The speaker is not in lavor of separation, but, unless the encroachments of the central government are abandoned, he will be forced into advocating the secession of his state., If the government will not yield to reason, it will be made to yield to force, for S. Paulo, to resist the encroachments of the government, can in five or six months put 50,000 men in the field. And, since parliamentary government in longer exists and congress is powerless to change the ministry, which, it is said, is kept in office by the sword, he appealed to Prevident Dedocro to make good his title as founder of the republic and, abandoning this fossil ministry, to put in office men who, whether they be original rep billy of public credit. This motion, being received with protests, was withdrawn by its author.

AUGUST 29.—Senate.—Senator Virgilio Damasio spoke on the electoral bill famed by the joint committee. He thinks the bill defective in the part relating to incompatibilities, and is in favor of secret voting. He promises to offer an amendment for holding the election of depaties by states when the number to be chosen by the state does not exceed five, and by districts in other states. Chamber of Depaties.—Deputy Benon de Paiva made a vigorous protest against the appointment of a judge in Minas Geraes since the state has been organized. He does not, he says, fear Sebastianism; the real danger to the country is the lack of morality in the administration of its affairs and the undue intervention of the general government in matters belonging to the states. The bill regulating the powers of the general and state governments for legislating on internal improvements was opposed by Deputy Benardino de Campos.

August 31.—Senate.—A memorial was received by Deputy Justiniano de Serpa and defended by Deputy Bernardino de Campos.

AUGUST 31.—Scande.—A memorial was received from deputies elected on January 3rd to the legislature of Matto Grosso protesting against another body calling itself the legislature of that state. Senator Wandenkolk opposed, on the ground of conomy, the bill for establishing a school for machinists at Pará. After speeches from Senators Catunda and Paes de Carvalho, the anmesty bill was voted in 3rd discussion. Chamber of Deputies.

—Deputy Thomaz Delfino said that every day there were complaints from the representatives of states against the encroachiments of the general government. In the city of Rio de Janeiro the action of this government is still more harmful. The government seems bent on loading the city with obligations before it is organized. Every period, he says, has its special characteristic. If that of the first reign was the camaritha, that of the second the lapis fadiatice, and that of the present period is the mão invisivel. A bill was introduced for delivering at once to the state governments, in conformity with Art. 64 of the constitution, the public buildings, plantations and factories situated within their respective boundaries which are not required for the use of the general government. Deputy Sampaio Ferraz, in presenting a petition of several labor organizations, spoke of the contrast between the sufferings and privations of the poor and the ostentiations display of wealth and luxury by fortunate speculators. He protested against the opinions that attribute this state of afairs to republic that attribute this state of afairs to republican institutions and assured the enemies of the republic that they cannot subvert these institutions without civil war. The petition asks for a reduction of 50 % in the duties on necessaries of life, the nationalization of the retail trade and some other measures. The budget committee reported in favor of postponing until after the organization of the budget, action on the request of the government for a special appropriation of 6,000,000$ for arming and equipping the army.

SEPTEMERE 1.—Senate.—The Senate rejected a motion of Senator Americo Lobo for referring to the committee on finance the bill on hanks of issue. The substitute bill interpreting Arts. 73, 74 and 75 of the constitution, was voted in 2nd discussion. In a speech on the electoral bill. Senator Quintino Bocayuva spoke in favor of secret voting. He thinks that in other countries there is more electoral corruption than in Brazil. Senator Saraiva: —"I don't agree with you; there is no country that can compete with Brazil in electoral frauds."—Senator Campos Salles:—"Under the monarchy this was caused by centralization. At present the republic is in construction, the foundation is very weak." Chamber of Deputies.—Deputy Proés da Cruz introduced a bill on house-rents. Deputy João de Sigueira said that the opposition speakers are very inconsistent in their charges against the government for interfering in the affairs of the states and now they are asking it to interfere in Sergipe and remove the duly elected governor of that state. Deputy Amphilophio spoke on the bill from the Senate, defining the causes for impen irom the Senate, defining the causes for impeachment, and defended an amendment that he offered. A resolution was offered for congratulating Chili on the termination of the civil war.

SEPTEMBER 2.—Senate.—Senator Amaro Cavalcanti delended his bill on banks of issue. He does not consider gold indispensable to a sound currency. Senator Saraiva defended the joint committee's electoral bill. In the course of his speech he said that in his opinion the country is badly governed now for the same reason for which it was badly governed under the monarchy, that is, on account of the weakness of the ministers. Chamber of -Deputies.—Deputy Garcia Pires introduced a bill to abolish the collection of import duties in gold. The committee on finance reported a bill for collecting half the duty in gold and half in currency. The majority of the committee on legislation reported in favor of the bill annulling the Metropolitana railway grant. A minority report against the bill was also presented. Deputy Henrique de Carvalho introduced a bill for the dissolution of congress and of the state legislatures and for holding new elections, after congress has voted the budget and the electoral law. Deputy João Vieira introduced a bill for the extradition of criminals between the states and the federal district. The bill defining the causes for which the President of the republic may be impeached was voted with an amendment of the committee on legislation. The committee on legislation reported a bill to substitute the marriage bill from the Senate. The substitute he marriage bill from the Senate. The substitute he marriage bill from the Senate. The substitute the marriage bill from the Senate. The substitute the marriage bill from the Senate. The senator Ramiro Barcellos the bill on banks of issue was referred to the committee on legislation

—A telegram of the 3rd from Santos to the Tempo says that the epidemic of yellow fever is still prevailing in that city.

The chamber of deputies of Bahia has passed a bill fixing the police force of the state at 1,600. The bill is now before the senate.

—In the municipal elections of Santa Catharina the federal party carried that of S. Francisco, which was the only one in which it took part.

—At Guaretinguetá the collector refuses to re ceive Banco da Republica notes in payment o taxes. Of course the collector is a "Sebastianist."

—In Pernambuco on the 31st ult. the bonded warehouse of Fonseca Irmãos was seized for the payment of 40,000$ due from that firm to the government.

—The federal party has decided not to take part in the municipal elections in Rio Grande do Sul, as those elections are to be held under the Cesario Alvim regulations.

—For several months St. Jacob has been doing as he pleased in his dominions with no one to molest him or make him afraid; but on the 1st inst. the opposition awoke from its long torpor and commenced the publication of a daily paper in Nictheroy.

The Sergipe legislature opened on the 2nd with an attendance of 12 deputies. Among the first motions offered was one approving the acts of the usurping governor, Vicente, and another censuring the national congress for limiting the powers of state executives. The Sergipe "twelve" is evidently a very obedient little body.

The city of Ouro Preto is just the place for strolling opera companies. The town simply goes wild over them, banquets are of frequent occurrence, manifestations almost every day, and then they are all embraced and sent away with tears and kisses. Even the poor chorus girl and ballet dancer are not forgotten.

-The governor and chief of police of Goyaz and —The governor and chief of police of Goyaz and the governor of Sergipe have all telegraphed to President Deodoro congratulating him on vetoing the bill for limiting the powers of governors of un-organised states. The governor of Goyaz says the president has saved that state from civil war. The fun of the incident is that these very officials are the men congress is after because of their arbitrary acts.

—A man in Jaboticabal telegraphed to a friend in Rio Claro to send him an ajudante de pedreiro (assistant stone-mason); but the amanuensis at the telegraph office made the telegram read abundante bandario (alundant stopping-place). The mistake, however, is not a very bad one, for it was probably for the purpose of constructing an abundant stopping-place that the Jaboticabal man wished the assistant stone-mason. At all events everything is so crowded now that a man should have a stone-mason if he wishes an abundant stopping-place.

Coffee Notes

-In Goyaz the price of coffee has risen to 24$

—We understand that the Geral directors are about to procure some very important improve-ments for the handling of coffee. The new facili-ties will not only expedite the work, but will greatly reduce the expense.

—According to advices from Guatemala the coffee harvest for 1891 will reach 7,000 quintals, representing $16,000,000. In ten years the production has more than doubled and the price realized has more than quadrupled.

—The coffee dealers are the next ones to strike.

They want to raise the price of empty coffee bags (which cost less than 500 rcis) from 700 rcis to a null rcis. Some of these days the consumer will strike, and then we shall see how the planter likes it.

—The director of the Geral railway system —The diffector of the Germ ranking system amounces that the company proposes to receive coffee to be shipped via Imbetiba, if the shipper sedesires. This gives a chance to avoid the delay on the Central line, but at a somewhat higher rate.

on the Central line, but at a somewhat higher rate.

—The Geral railway company has asked permission to discharge coffee on the new quays between the ferry and the war arsenal, where temporary structures will be built to receive it. All the other places are full and a new place is necessary in order to prevent a serious obstruction in the handling of this product. It is said that the minister will give his consent.

Notes RAILROAD

—Two of the English directors of the Geral system appointed under the terms of the loan contract with Messrs. Morton, Rose and Co., have entered upon the discharge of their duties. They are Messrs. E. J. Lynch and J. Mawson, both experienced managers of Brazilian railways.

—The inauguration of the Metropolitana circular railway occurred in the Largo da Carioca on the 6th inst. in the presence of President Deodoro and his cabinet. It consisted of speeches by Ruy Barboss, Minister Uchōa, a Polytechnic student and Sr. Nicosia. Ruy then made a second speech in defence of his partiality for Argentine talent, the documents formally condemning the Carioca reservoir were signed, and the corner-stone of the future Hotel Carioca, now called the "estação central" was formally laid. The recent step toward annulling the concession by Congress was carefully ignored.

—The time fixed for concluding the construction of the following railways has been extended:—The remaining 1g kilometers on the Estrado de ferro Central de Macahé, one year; extension of the Barao de Ararunan railway, two years; Itapemirim branch of Carangola railway, two years.

mirim branch of Carangola railway, two years.

—The concession for an elevated railway from the Lagoa de Rodrigo de Freitas (Botanical Garden) into the city, granted by a decree of the 28th November, 1890, has resulted in a scheme which has received the sanction of the minister of agriculture, in spite of its absurdity and its invasion of the privilege held by the Botanical Garden tramway. Its route will be Ruas Humayta, S. Clemente, Praia de Botofogo, Senador Verqueiro, Cattete, and the shore line to Rua i ye de Março, returning by way of Ruas Fresca, Misericordia, Santa Luzia, Passelo, Lapa, Cattete, Verqueiro, Prata do Botofogo, Voluntarios da Patria, to the Lagoa. If built, it will completely spoil several of the best residence streets of the city.

LOCAL NOTES

—Vice-President Floriano Peixoto returned to this capital on the 2nd inst.

—"Down with the foreign retailer!" is again the national war-cry, or will be if Sampaio Ferraz can bring it about.

—What is the use of a Congress, anyway? It hasn't even authority enough to scare an Argentine off the Carioca reservoir!

—The increase in the death rate of this city is really becoming alarming. Will someone do us the favor to shoot a sanitary inspector?

—Her Britannic Majesty's minister at this capital, Hugh Wyndham, Esq., was formally received by President Deodoro on Saturday last.

—It would seem that everybody wants to construct houses for the poor. Much of this sympathy, however, is of the kind shown by the wolf.

—Deputy Anfriso attributes to "Sebastianist" plots the report of the Emperor's Illenss. Councillor Mayrink's opinion on the subject is respectfully solicited.

-- Law No. 6 of the republic authorizes the gov ernment to purchase the house occupied by the late Gen. Benjamin Constant and to compensate his family for the rent they have paid since Feb ruary 24.

—On Monday and Tuesday there was a strik among the laborers at the coffee warehouses in this city and 100 laborers were brought fron Nictheroy to take the places of the strikers.

Nictheroy to take the piaces or the strikers.—It is said that the government has recently deported two Italian priests. As it was not done by judicial process and the country is not under martial law, it would be interesting to know where the authority is derived for so arbitrary an act.

—Deputy Anfriso gives us the cheering intelligence that President Decoloro will cut off both hands and lose his life besides, rather than shed one drop of Brazilian blood. This is more conforting than Antrins's blood-curdling ancedotes of "Sebastianism."

"Schastanism."
—Permission has been granted to the engineer Meiville Hora to make surveys in the bay between the marine arsenal, Illia das Colvas and Illia das Enxadas for certain proposed port works. The government stipulates that it is responsible neither for the expenses of the surveys nor for the grant of the concession solicited.

A great deal of quiet amusement was afforded during the recent representations of the new opera Condor by the eccentric conduct of the composer, who stood in the wings and rushed out to congratulate the artist every time anyone applauded. His frequent appearance led some ungenerous people to think that he was trying to secure all the applause for himself.

—Poor Conservation

people to think that he was trying to secure all the applianse for himself.

—Poor Quintino thinks that there is more corruption in other countries than in Brazil. If it were not for Quintino himself, and Ruy and Chico and Lara's invisible friend, and the wife of Alguem and a hundred other cases known to the world, then we might join him in this little bit of consolation. Unhapply, however, we can not make a black surface look white without a little whitewash.

—We deeply regret to note the death of Mr. John Francis Thompson, of Brooklyn, N. Y., which occurred in this city on Friday morning. September 4th. The deceased was junior partner in the firm of Canfield & Thompson, New York, and was engaged in establishing business relations with this city and Buenos Aires. He was a young man of rare abilities and exceptionally high character, and had every promise before him of a cancer, said had every promise before him of a cancer.

—The new measure adopted by the Botanical Garden tramway suspending half fares, from the city, on the trams going beyond the Largo do Machado, is arousing bitter criticism, but without good reason. Those who have the longer journey to make will fully appreciate the protection which this measure insures. As long as the company supplies trams enough for the short trip passengers, they can have no reason to complain that other trams are reserved for those who have the longer journey to make.

---Minister Salvador de Mendonça arrived here on the 3rd inst. on board the steamer La Plata.

—The inspector of the Gloria quarteirão was robbed in his own house on the 2nd. No wonder he cannot protect the rest of us.

—Urbano Duarte says that present prices make it very hard to live here now, but in compensation small-pox makes it very easy to die.

—On the 2nd the Supreme Court refused to grant a writ of habeas corpus in favor of the organizer and directors of the Banco Mercantil do Brazil.

-Barão de Lucena has at last resigned the office of governor of Pernambuco. The prime minister evidently begins to feel that he is in the government to stay.

—In Saturday's Jornal do Commercio there is an advertisement of a "moço brazileiro," 16 years old, with 14 years' business experience. A precocious young man, certainly!

—On the 4th inst, the police discovered a den of counterfeiters at Rua de D. Mannel No. 54. Several notes of $2 and $5, said to be well executed, were found in the place.

—The amnesty bill in favor of the Para revolu-tionists was signed and promulgated on the 5th inst. It must be a terrible disappointment to Huet and Anfriso not to have some one guillotined.

and Anfriso not to have some one guillotined.

—During the month of August 932 cases of small-pox were reported to the board of health in this city. The "board," however, has not been in the least disturbed by so trifling a thing as an average of 30 new cases of small-pox a day.

—Rio has always been celebrated for bad smells and indecent sights, but it would seem that the ambition of her dilettantes has not even yet been satisfied. Those who wish to see what amusements the young men of this city most enjoy should visit the El Dorado.

—On the 30 linst, a detachment of soldiers are should visit the El Dorado.

On the 3rd inst, a detachment of soldiers sent to the island of Melöes in this bay to capture deserters, committed many depredations on property there, breaking into houses and even setting fire to a building. The "discipline of our army" is still up to its old standard.

still up to its old standard.

—A horrible death occurred in a soap factory on the Largo de Cascadura on the morning of the 5th inst., an employé of the establishment, delirious with fever, leaving his bed and precipitating himself into a boiling cauldron of soap. Death resulted instantaneously.

—The telegraph bureau announces the following rates for telegraphs by the new cable to the United States:—From Rio to New York and states east of the Mississippi river, 3$500 per word; to New Orleans and states west of Mississippi river, 4$100; from points south of Rio de Janeiro to any part of the United States, 4$300.

the United States, 4$300.

—It is pleasing to note that a patriotic but impecunious citizen wants the government to give him the free use of an unoccupied piece of ground next to the insame asylum as a centre of anisoments. We are at a loss to understand the scheme, but if it is for the diversion of the insame people inside the asylum we take much pleasure in giving it our hearty approval.

—We should like to caution our readers against a lot of loafers and vagabonds in this city, who are deceiving people with putful stories about being unfortunate immigrants. The "dodge" is to solicit work, beginning to-morrow of course, and then ask for money to get a bed and something to eat for the night. The safe plan is to pay after the work is done.

eat for the night. The safe plan is to pay after the work is done.

—According to all reports the new Cassino is attaining an unenviable notoriety as a gambling resort. The stakes are frequently very high and the hours long. As the police still continue to raid the places where the poor man stakes his copper and nickel, we trust they will not be so unjust as to overlook the place where conton are staked and lost every night.

—Deputy Sampian Ferraz does not seem to have that horror of bloodshed attributed by Depairy Anfriso to President Deodorn, and is evidently anxious tor a little blood-letting. This makes us suspect that there is a mistake in the supposed name of the honorable deputy and that he is not Campao Ferraz, but Sampaio Ferroz. And it is to be presumed, also, that he is not the same man who took to the woods after signing a harmless little protest against the provisional government.

—Buenos Aires advices in regard to Chilian

—Buenos Aires advices in regard to Chilian affairs note that the revolutionary junta had been received with great enthusiasm at Valparaiso, that 10,000$ had been voted by the municipal government of that city for festivities on the 18th, that the courts and banks are re-opening, that Balmaceda had escaped to Peru, that the Condell had surrendered to the Chilian minister to Peru at Callao, and that crews are to be sent after three new vessels now outward bound.

—It has been decided by the Botanical Cavilers.

Litree new vessels now outward bound.

—It has been decided by the Botanical Gardens tramway company to abolish half fares from the city on the cars that go beyond Largo do Machado. As the number of Largo do Machado cars are wolally insufficient, this measure of course means that the majority of passengers to Largo do Machado and for shorter distances must pay 200 reis. In this connection we desire to call the attention of the directors to the advisability of being more liberal with the ladies who are obliged to go down the line and take an incoming tram in order to get a seat. In such cases no fares should be collected.

—Among the passengers leaving for the United —Among the passengers leaving for the United States, per ss. Advance, on the 5th inst., was Mme. Corina Coaracy, of the editorial staff of the Pairs, who we believe is the only lady in Brazil who has adopted journalism as a profession. Mme. Coaracy goes to the United States principally on account of her health, but will employ a part of her time in procuring information for a series of letters to the Pairs, particularly with reference to the Chicago exposition. As Mme. Coaracy is an American by birth and the daughter of the gentleman, Mr. Vivaldi, who established the predecessor of this paper (The South American Mail) which was ullimately incorporated in The Rio News, we take much pleasure in bespeaking for her a hearty reception from the journalists of the United States.

—The High-Life Hotel on Rua do Lavradio is not very old, but it is already earning a reputation. It seems that this establishment is frequented by lords of the ensiblaments of comitante externs and that the assemblages there are not entirely harmonious. On the 3rd, at 11 p.m., matters reached such a state that the police had to interfere, and, after dispersing the carriage-drivers who were holding high carnival below, went up stairs and quieted their masters.

—Councillor Mayrink says he has sent no money out of the country. Unfortunately, however, he has flooded Brazil with it. Perhaps the people in Europe are all "schastianists" and refuse to take Banco da Republica notes.

The Credito Popular seems to be a genuine bank parasite. It is now to have 10,000,000$\frac{1}{2}$ to 100$\frac{1}{2}$ notes made in Leipzig for the Banco do: Estados Uridos. We should like to see a distinctive note issued from this extraordinary bank.

The municipal intendence of Juiz de Fóra has resolved to loan 10,000$ for 5 years zeithem interest to an individual who proposes to establish a slaughter house and supply beet at prices ranging from 400 to 600 reis per kilo.

—By a decree of the 29th ult, the government grants an exemption from duties and free transportation over the Central railway for material imported for the construction and use of the Academia do Commercio of Juiz de Fóra.

demia do Commercio of julz de Fora.

—Barão de Lucena may net be able to help Councillor Mayrink to "raise the wind;" but he has given him a little zephyr (Zeferino) to fan his beated imagination and separate the wheat from the chaff in the Banco da Republica's assets.

—Campos is now on the boom! The Companhia Lacticinios Mineiros was installed there on the 6th with a capital of 250,000$°. It will milk cows, make cheese and ice and improve the pastoral industry just as much and just as fast as it can.

—A thieves' bank has been one of the institu-tions of London for some time past, but the managers have now retired to the seclusion of a penitentiary. Rio can show several organizations of that character, but under other names and without any restraint on their managers.

without any restraint on their managers.

—Heavy expenditures on her army and navy, coupled with difficulties in her commercial relations with France, is producing a financial crisis in Italy. The Brazilian who thinks that a country ought to support a burdensome army and navy, no matter what it may cost, will do well to study its effect on Italy.

—Members of the special committee of financial inquiry of the Chamber of Deputies visited the Banco da Republica on the 3rd. The Tempo says that what they learned during this visit will enable them to report on the binding of the books in which the bank keeps its accounts, but not on their contents.

The official valuation of the exports from Espirito Santo during the half year ending 30th June amounted to 6,332,652$465, on which the export duties paid were 289,942$134. There was an increase in the exports of coffee of 44,645 bags over that of the corresponding period of 1890, which was 111,600 bags.

—Under date of the 22nd ult, the minister of finance directed a circular to the various subtreasuries asking for the customs and revenue returns for the first half of the current year, the information being solicited by congress. When the returns are all in, the congressmen will be evacuating Rio as rapidly as they can.

—In answer to a communication from the Senate, President Deodoro informs that body that the government is preparing a bill, which is now nearly ready, for improving the financial situation of the country and that he relies on the patriotism of congress for accomplishing the opportune and definite organization of Brazilian finances.

—Seven members of the new board of super-visors for banks and companies met at the national printing-office on the 4th and decided to write to the minister of finance informing him that the other two had failed to appear. We believe the missing two have no intention of serving.

—The budget proposed to the legislature of S. Paulo by the president of that state estimates the receipts at 14,943,000$ and the expenditures at 13,533,047$152. The principal items in the estimate of the receipts are 10,000,000$ from export duties and 2,300,000$ from the tax on transfers of property.

tuttes and 2,300,000$ from the tax on transfers of property.

—The Diario Official attributes the article in the Tempe of Paris on Brazilians hances to the influence of wicked Brazilians who, being unable to convert the festive days of the revolution into days of terror, have retired to foreign countries to plot against the interests of Brazil. These wicked persons must be friends of Councilior Mayrink and others who, by raising the cry of Sebastianisma, are endeavoring to establish a reign of terror.

—It should not be forgotten that the period for the honest withdrawal of bank notes expires on the 30th inst. for the 100$ from the too the Banco do Brazil, and the 100$ 200$ and $00$ surcharged notes, 2nd emission, of the Banco do Brazil, and the 100$ 200$ and $00$ surcharged notes, 2nd emission, of the same bank, in substitution. After the 30th inst. the last three notes will be considered without value. It is sheer robbery of course, but not out of harmony with the prevailing sentiment of the day.

MARKET REPORT.

Rio de Janeiro, 7th September, 1891.

N. I. Harding, actg. Accountant.

Rio de Janeiro, 7th September, 1891.

Exports.

Coffee.—The week was rather quiet and prices steadily declined until quotations on Saturday were 1$000—1$200 lower than on the preceding Saturday. There was some inclination then shown on the part of exporters to enter the market more freely, but holders became more stiff in their pretensions, and as Monday and Tuesday were to be holidays the banks closing on those days, exporters withdrew and the banks closing on those days, exporters withdrew and the banks closing on those days, exporters withdrew and the banks closing on those days, exporters withdrew and the banks closing on those days, exporters withdrew and the banks closing on those days, exporters withdrew and the banks closing on the same banks. The total sales for the same banks and the same banks and it has been fairly stady futured banks, and, if this tone is maintained, business in coffee can be resumed with some basis for calculations, which has been entirely wanting during the past six weeks.

Receipts continue about on the same basis, but our figures do not include the receipts barra dentro on the 5th.
