theory rejected by Mr. Search, it is, we think, because such persons have failed to appeal to the proper sentiment. Every one, we presume, has observed that in the case of two merchants handling merchandise exactly alike one makes large sales while the other perhaps sells comparatively little. The cause of the difference, we venture to assert, is that the successful merchant has known how to appeal to some sentiment of each of the purchasers, while his competitor has for some reason failed to do so.

There is no doubt in our mind that ne of the most formidable obstacles to one of the most formidable obstacles to the development of trade between Brazil and the United States results from a cause that is purely sentimental. Un-less our observation is at fault, there prevails among Brazilians an erroneous supposition that behind the desire of Americans for closer commercial inter-course with South American countries burk ambiting along for abtrainers.

THE WAR IN BAHIA

ITHE WAR IN BAHHA
It is now asserted that the present disastrous war in Bahia originated in a transaction between Antonio Conselheiro and a police commissioner. The latter it appears had sold to Conselheiro some timber, which, after receiving the money, he failed to deliver. Hearing that the fanatics intended to take it by force, he appealed to the State government of Bahia and succeeded in inducing it to send troops against Conselheiro. The fanatics resisted and the first expedition was followed by others, which have cost the country much blood and treasure.

Col. Carlos Telles has written to a Bahia journal confirming the statements attributed to him. He adds that at the battle of Cocorobó Savager's troops were opposed by not over 300 fanatics.

He is convinced, he says, that the monar-chists have not the slightest connection with Conselheiro.

Conselheiro.

Gen. Arthur Oscar seems to think otherwise, if we may judge by his telegram to Congressman Nilo Peçanha. In this telegram te says that the fanatics have improved weapons and explosive balls and he asks where they obtained them. He estimates their force as being larger than his own.

He defends his conduct and says that he believes that the minister of war will approve of everything that he has done.

He says that in the fight of July 18 he lost for men and that his total loss since June 25

Wounded officers continue to arrive from Bahia. Among them is Gen. Savaget, who on Saturday called at Friburgo palace and had a long interview with President Prudente de Mo-

The latter is said to have received from the minister of war a detailed account of the situation in Bahia.

It is reported that the minister will leave the State capital for Canudos day after tomor-to leave for Bahia to day.

The brigade which left here under the command of Gen. Grard is supposed to have reached Canudos. Many of the officers and men reported themselves unift for duty on the march and when the brigade arrived at Monte Santo it was commanded by a major, the 24th battalion being commanded by a captain. Altogether over 20 officers, it is stated, fail to be with the brigade.

It is reported that at Rosario it was attacked by a band of fanatics, who killed two ensigns and four privates.

On the 10th inst. Gen. Arthur Oscar is said.

The archbishop of Bahia has ordered prayers for peace to be said at all the churches in his province.

LEGISLATIVE NOTES

Aug. 16.—Chamber of Deputies.—Deputy Luiz Adolpho described the present financial situation as deplorable and said that, although an uncompromising republican, he was sufficiently candid to acknowledge that the republic, when it was established, found the country in a prosperous situation. Deputy Nilo Peganha sarcastically suggested the restoration of the monarchy as a financial panacea. Deputy Luiz Adolpho said that until the annual defact in the budget is overcome there can be no financial improvement. He proposed increase in taxation, reduction of public expenditure, conversion of the internal 4 per cent gold bonds into currency bonds and suspension of the periodical payment of quotas for gradually estinguishing the principal of flev arious government loans. He spoke in favor of an income tax. Deputy Francisco Veiga said that, although congress is now in the middle of the last month of the present session, it has scarcely begun its work. He suggested the valoption of measures for preventing the waste of time.

venting the waste of time.

Auc. 17.—Chamber of Deputies.—The debates were so stormy that the sitting was twice suspended. Deputy Glycerio asserted that the opposition would vote against any increase in taxation and Deputy Belisario stated that the government party would gladly accept the cooperation of the opposition in promoting the reduction of public expenditure. That party, he said, does not endorse all of the opinious of Deputy Luiz Adolpho on the financial question.

Aug. 18.—Chamber of Depaties.—The proceedings were so disorderly that it was necessary to suspend the sitting three times. The first quarrel was over the count of the vote on deputy Leovigildo's motion to ask for information in regard to the war in Bahia. The result announced was the rejection of the motion by a vote of 80 to 78. The other disturbances were caused by unsuccessful attempts to close the discussion of the budget of the department of finance. A sufficient number of opposition members withdrew to deprive the house of a quorum.

Aug. 19.—Chamber of Deputies.—The pro-

he house of a quorum.

Aug. 19.—Chamber of Deputies.— The proceedings were again disorderly and the sitting was once more suspended. This occurred during a speech of deputy Nilo Peçanha. When he had concluded, deputy Serzedello took the floor and said that from the report of the tribunal of accounts it appears that last year the government attempted to spend over 100.000000000, in addition to the appropriations voted by congress and that by executive decree it made appropriations that were not registered by the tribunal. He moved to postpone the discussion of the budget of the department of finance until the report of the tribunal should be sent to the chamber. The motion was rejected by a vote of $8 to 75.

Aug. 20.—Chamber of Deputies.— By a vote of $8 to 75 to 8 the chamber.

Aug. 20. — Chamber of Deputies. — By a vote of 78 to 70 the chamber adopted a motion of deputy Alcindo Guanabara to ask for information in regard to expenses made by the government without being registered by the tribunal of accounts. Deputy Nilo Peçanha read a telegram from Gen. Arthur Oscar.

—In our opinion there is not the slightest necessity for an increase in taxation nor for the suspension of the payment of the usual quotas for the gradual extinction of the principal of the government loans. On the contrary what is needed is a reduction of taxes and sweeping retrenchments in public expenditure, so that production may be stimulated and foreign capital induced to enter the country. This is the best and perhaps the only way to improve the financial situation.

— Prominent members of the government party held a meeting on Saturday night at the house of the minister of finance and discussed the financial situation. They arrived at the conclusion, it is stated, that the deficit next year will amount to about 25,000000500. In order to overcome this deficit they propose to increase not only the postage and te legraph rates, but also the water rates, to put a tax of 10 reis a box on matches and of 30 reis a kilo on salt and to collect in gold the dock and lighthouse dues.

THE BRAZIL GREAT SOUTHERN

At the 14th ordinary general meeting of the Brazil Great Southern company (Rio Grande do Sul) in London on 16th July, the chairman expressed the following opinion on the situation in Brazil in contection with his discussion of the company's operations in 1856:

"The working of the line shows an improvement on 1856, bringing up the balance to the credit of net revenue account to £7,442—equal to 3½ per cent. upon the preference share capital; but this money cannot yet be distributed, owing to the continued delay in obtaining the consent of the Brazilian government to the extension of time to which we are clearly entitled under the concession for the construction of the St. Angelo extension of the raiway. Our latest advices are that what we have so long petitioned for will probably be granted during the present session. I continue to hold a firm belief in a revival of confidence in Brazilian securities. It is a matter of notoriety that serious efforts are being made by the Brazilian securities. It is a matter of notoriety that serious efforts are being made by the Brazilian government to reform its finances and improve its currency, one measure which has been passed, intended to produce this result, being the sale or lease of the government railways, upon which several millions of capital have been expended. Powerful and influential syndicates, both in this country and on the Continent, are negotiating for the acquisition of some of those lines, and also for the reorganisation of some important railways now owned and worked by Brazilian capitalists, with a view to their more efficient working and development under British or European control. Some of these negotiations have reached a final stage, and others are sure to result in the attainment of the desired end. So soon as practical effect begins to be given to these arrangements I venture to think that we shall see a decided improvement in the value of all Brazilian securities was clearing and to the coresion of my last addressing you for our preference shares w
