WEST COAST ITEMS.

The Chilian customs revenue in July amounted to 5,540,602 dollars.

— A Lima telegram of the 24th says that groups of revolutionists have invaded Abancay and Cotabambas.

— A Lima telegram of the 22nd says that the old church of the S. Francisco convent has been burned, including many treasures of historic value.

—Chili has sent two doctors to Paraguay to study the bubonic outbreak there. In all probability they will find themselves studying typhoid instead of bubonic pest.

Lima telegrams state that the insurgent chief Durand is surrounded by government troops. But, it should be said, we are not accepting official reports with much avidity — Chili has adopted prompt measures against an invasion of the bubonic pest from Paraguay. The passes of the Andes are to be guarded even—which looks rather like restrictions against Argentina.

trictions against Argentina.

— The chamber of deputies is once more in a chaotic condition. Everybody wants to rule and nobody wishes to obey. Legislation is completely at a standstill, and the condition of affairs is of such a nature as to make onlookers despair of party government. One thing only is discernible in the chaotic political atmosphere of congress, and that is a new symptom of paper issue. — Chilian Times, Aug. 19.

RIVER PLATE ITEMS.

-Secretary Miura, of the Japanese legation at Rio de Janeiro, is visiting Buenos Aires.

A Buenos Aires telegram of the 22nd say —A Buenos Aires telegram of the 22nd says that the senate has approved the financial projects of President Roca by a vote of 20 to 8.

On the 13th inst, the Argentine minister elivered to the conversion office 1,750,000 ten cent pieces and 500,000 five cent pieces of the new nickel issue.

—On the 23rd the Argentine senate approved the financial project of Dr. Pellegrini. The dishonesty of the scheme seems to have no terrors for the average machine legislator.

—It is stated that the Argentine government has made an abatement of 30 per cent in its railway tariffs on merchandise in transit destined for Bolivia. Some of Argentina's neighbors might imitate this with advantage to themselves.

to themseives.

— A Sunday's telegram from Buenos Aires says that the Catamarca provincial government immediately shot three of the rebel leaders who were captured in the first combat. The reports of the casualties are conflicting. The federal garrison at Santiago del Estero has been sent to Catamarca to assist in quelling the outbreak.

—The imports into Uruguay during the first half of the current year were valued at $12,963,763, against $13,246,372 in the same period of 1898. The exports in the same period were $21,665,123 this year and $18,250,026 last year, of which slaughter house products covered $19,586,571 and $14,922,467 for the respective two half years.

— What has become of the Jewish colony in northern Argentina? Has it collapsed? We have seen a copy of the will of Clara, Baroness von Hirsch, widow of Baron Moritz von Hirsch, and although half her immense fortune was bequeathed in charity, and to Jewish colonial settlements, there is no mention of the Argentine Hebraic colony.

— It is said that the Argentine government proposes to spend a million dollars on sanitary stations at Buenos Aires, La Plata and Bahia Blanca. The money spent on proper sanitary improvements would be much better. It would not enrich jobbers, perhaps, but it would benefit the people and be far more efficacious against epidemic disease.

— Telegrams from Buenos Aires state that the Argentine government has resolved not to close its ports against Paraguay, but to impose to days quarantine and distinfection. This implies an absurdity. If there is really bubonic pest there, why should quarantine be reduced to ten days, when it is 20 from Portugal, counting from the date of the vessel's departure from the infected port?

—Telegrams from Buenos Aires of the 23rd announce a revolution in Catamarca, where the people have revolted against the two or three families which run that province. The national force attacked the rebels and 7 were killed and 14 wounded in the first encounter. The outbreak has been suffocated in the provincial capital, but the revolution is said to be extending in the country districts.

- Messrs Hicks and Co are about to start — Messrs Hicks and Co are about to start a new sanitary station and lazaretto in the Chico Bank. By the terms of the bill in congress which has received the approval of the respective committee, the concessionaires, will build the necessary moles and dwellings on the bank having separate places for infectious diseases. In compensation for the outlay all vessels arriving in the River Plate will be required to call there for the health visit, pay a charge that shall not exceed four cents gold per registered ton. Separate charges will also be made for fumigation etc., etc.—Times, Buenos Aires, Sept. 13.

—The Argentine government has offered assistance to Paraguay to combat the alleged bubonic pest at Asuncion, which has been accepted. The gunboat "Maipú" has been sent to Asuncion with doctors, medicines, disinfectants, etc.

—The Forrest Shipbuilding Company is now finishing for the government two dispatch boats of about fifteen knots each at a cost of twenty-two thousand pounds. At the same time another firm of engineers are building four sets of triple engines for the four tug boats that are being built here for the South Atlantic vigilance service.—Times, Buenos Aires.

Aires.

—The Argentine admiralty has taken one step in the right direction. Instructions have been given that the River Plate squadron be paid off. The vessels will be laid up as they ought to have been months ago. This will save an expense of several thousands a month but we do not hear that the officers are to be put on half pay whilst they do no work.—Times, Buenos Aires.

The Moutevideo, war, authorities have.

Times, Buenos Aires.

—The Montevideo war authorities have reported favorably on a proposal received from a German manufacturing company for purchasing all the present small arms and artillery from the army, which are now out of date, and giving in exchange modern weapons of some worth. This will no doubt be accepted as the present armament of the Uruguayan army is known to be of a very poor order indeed, —Times, Buenos Aires.

order indeed, —Times, Buenos Aires.

—The Buenos Aires and Montevideo newspapers and business men are complaining of the delays in the mails caused by quarantine restrictions—and with good reason. They question the right of Brazil to hold mails in quarantine for a week or more—but, then, what can they do? In the sacred name of protection against a deadly disease, the health authorities are permitted to do just what they please, and in this part of the world we prefer to do what our ancestors did in the middle ages. age io do what our ancestors did in the middle ages.

—Query. Why should sanitary authorities be allowed freely to commit abuses and absurdities any more than any other public officers? Yet the fact is that they use—and more often abuse—an unlimited and irresponsible power, which is allowed to no other officials. We do not see that the fact of a mru being a sanitary officer relieves him of responsibility for his acts or of the obligation to respect public interests. It the state were made to pay, as in justice it ought to be, for the injuries and prejudices inflicted by its sanitary officers on unoffending third parties, the dictatorial powers exercised by these gentlemen would soon be reduced to more reasonable limits, and they would be taught that although public health is a very important consideration, there are other interests that have a right to be consulted as well. The above remarks remind us that Uruguay, Argentina and Chile ought to present a heavy bill of damages to Brazil for the injuries caused by the improper and unjustifiable detention of steamers bearing mails, passengers and cargo for their ports.—Montevideo Times, Sept. 15.

—There is a phase of the so-called conversion scheme which vitally affects the foreign caused by the improper and unjustifiable detention of steamers bearing mails, passengers and carge for their ports.—Montevideo Times, Sept. 15.

—There is a phase of the so-called conversion scheme which vitally affects the foreign element in this country. Argentina is within the concert of civilized nations in so far as international written and unwritten laws are concerned. Foreigners residing in this republic are perfectly aware that they have to respect the laws of the country and they are, equally, aware that they have a perfect right to the benefits of such laws and that their respective governments are in duty bound to see that their subjects derive the benefits of such laws. It is the law of the land that the inconvertible paper money in possession of foreigners here, represents gold at par, but they can not claim the conversion of that paper money is legal tender. That is the law under which foreigners here hold paper money. That law constitutes the contract whereby the two contracting parties are bound, i.e., the government on the one part as issuer of that paper money, the people on the other, as holder of that paper money. It is an elementary principle at law that no contract can be modified without the consent of the contracting parties are bound, i.e., the government on the one part as issuer of that paper money, the people on the other, as holder of that paper money. It is an elementary principle at law that no contract can be modified without the consent of the contracting norties are bound, i.e., the government on the one part as issuer of that court in the favor is inding by law on the E. P. and foreign governments are in duty bound to take up the case of their subjects once the judgment of the superme court, in that sense, is attained. Foreign resident ministers here could not refuse applications of that court in his favor is binding by law on the E. P. and foreign governments are in duty bound to take up the case of their subjects once the judgment of the superme court, in that sense, is att

THE following story is told of a witty attention to Mr. Rudyard Kipling Mr. Leland, proprietor of the Hotel Grenoble, New York, where the novelist stayed during his recent illness, had the originals of all the doctors' bulletins bound into a handsome abbum, which he presented to Mr. Kipling on the day of his departure for England. CAMPO GRANDE COURSE.

CAMPO GRANDE COURSE.

Glorions weather favored what may now be called the "Annuals meeting, which this year occurred on the 8th inst., and Success (capital S) must be written down as the result.

Messrs. H. J. Perman and S. Jones came forward handsomely, the former with a magnificent "Cup," the latter with a massive "Plate," both of silver. These prizes have to be won twice by the same rider before becoming absolute property.

The course had been nicely prepared and tassisted to harden the sand and keep the dust down in the paddock.

Dr. Rawlinson took charge of the immense grand-stand and made it gay with bunting and green leaves.

Before noon, the beauty and chivalry of the community put in an appearance, beauty being in lovely frocks and ohic millinery; chivalry in all sorts of gets-up.

The president, committee, starters, judges, etc., all worked as if success depended solely on their individual efforts. The ladies also did their share with grace and good-will, whilst the *gentlemen jockeys all came up smiling and eager.

Sweepstakes were indulged in by the fair ones as well as the men, bets of all kinds were being soffered, stakens and swanted by young and—midtle aged (for here no one ever dreams of growing old).

Luncheon hampers, baskets, etc., were lying all over the place and ample provision for the thirsty and hungry was made by friend Clunie until near the end, when $Sootch ran a *short race.

One sporting bet of 1000 to 1 on was offered and taken in the Jones' Plate: and one fostlao

One sporting bet of 1000 to 1 on was offered and taken in the Jones' Plate; and one tostão was lost.

Between 2 and 4 o'clock, the scene was very animated. Brazilian friends had come in numbers, the majority, ladies in magnetic costumes and these added to the Britishers must have made the total number present far over two made the total number present thousand.

Mrs. Estill gracefully presented the splendic prizes to the winners.

Luckily there was not a single spill, or unpleasant thing to mar the gigantic epicnic. A About 30 horses took part in the 13 events got through, all owned by Britishers.

This was a novelty and caused great fun. Each rider nominates a lady, draws a number, goes to the post 200 metres from dressing point, with the doll undressed.

The ladies, who are standing opposite the grand stand, then draw for dressing.

When the riders rush up they shout their number and throw their dolls to the lady with same number who hurries on the poor thing's dress, throws it back and away go the riders, —It has been discovered that a vapor bath, or Russian steam bath, will cure hydrophobia. The discovery was made by Dr. Buisson, of Paris, who had taken hydrophobia from a patient, and entered such a bath with the idea of committing suicide. He derived immediate relief and a permanent cure was effected. Since then over 400 cures are recorded by this process. Where the steam bath can not be obtained, hot fomentations over the whole body accompanied by wrapping in heavy warm blankets may be substituted. The object is to induce profuse perspiration, which should be kept up for an hour at a time.

The President of the Orange Free State has had a long conference with the United States consul in Bloemfontein on the actual situation. The telegrams from Pretoria state that Mr. Reitz, secretary of state, declared that in case of war the Transvala and Orange Free State have decided to help one another.

Regiments of infantry and batteries of artillery are being got ready in Brisbane, Queensland, for service in South Africa, and in Melbourne volunteers are being rapidly enrolled for the same service.

The Afrikanders in Cape Colony say that the Transval will under no footbor concessions, and that unless Great Britain backs down in her demands war is inevitable.

According to the Manchester Guardian, Great Britain has agreed to cede a large tract of territory in British East Africa along the frontiers of Abyssinia down to Lake Rudolf, north-east of Victoria Nyanza, to Menelik. (We presume the two zebras sent to the Queen lately were not the quid pro quo).

Oporto telegrams to London say that the mob there has stoned the public health office as a protest against the sanitary measures being enforced.

SEPT. 21.—Another meeting of the cabinet has been called for to-morrow to discuss the Transvaal question. There are still hopes of a pacific solution being arrived at.

Sir William Harcourt, in the course of a speech yesterday, said the jingo press was aggravating the Transvaal crisis to provoke war, when it is still possible to avoid it by making mutual concessions. Such a war, in his opinion, would be an inhuman one, and an unequal one.

Sir A. Milner telegraphed to President Steyn of the Orange Free State, informing him that Great Britain counted on his neutrality in case the Transvad question could not be settled amicably. President Steyn replied that he hoped for a peaceful settlement, but, in any case, he considered the employment of force injustifiable.

The semate, sitting as supreme court, heard to-day the demand of the attorney-general for the prosecution of the men charged with conspiracy. The session was a private one, but the documents produced by the prosecutor gave prima factic evidence of an attempt to overthrow the present form of government, and by 234 votes to 32 it was decided to submit the case to a select committee of enquiry. The greatest precaution was taken to prevent disturbance outside the Luxembourg palace and the neighborhood was calm.

There must have been something in the alleged conspiracy, or their conscience would not have made cowards of them.)

Sept. 21.—General Gallifet, minister of war, has issued a field order to commanding officers informing them that they should bow before the decree pardoning Dreyfus without thought of reprisals. All should forget the past and think only of the future. The decree has been published in the Journal Official, together with the report of the minister of war on which it was based. The chief reason given was the pacification of the country. (This is unworthy of so brave a man as General Gallifet. Instead of bringing the corruption of the army staff to the surface, and curing the whole body, he has merely cauterised the sores and driven the corruption in again, to reappear later in a more aggravated form. The question cannot be so settled, and militarism will receive another shock when Zola is tried in November).

Dreyfus is now known to have gone to Carpentras, in the Vauchus department, to visit his family.

L'Auorve publishes a letter signed by Dreyfus in which he amnounces his firm purpose of going on with his agitation until his innocence has been completely established, and adequate reparation has been done him for the judicial error from which he has suffered. He will probably reside in France.

Great disturbances have taken place in Algiers between the anti-jewish party headed by Max Regis, the ex-mayor of the place, and the police. Attempts were made to hold manifestations against the government for liberating Dreyfus, in front of the commanding officer's house, before the barracks and in the jovish quarter, but all were frustrated by the police. The forest around Cannes have been set on fire, and the soldiers have had to be called out to extinguish the flames.

Nearly 10,000 men are out on strike in Creusot and St. Etienne. SEPT. 21. - General Gallifet, minister of war

Felisherto Brandt, Visconde de Barbacena, was born at Bahia, Brazil, on July 3, 1802, and, after a life of continuous work, has reached the age of ninety-seven, not only in possession of all his faculties, but physically more active than an average man thirty years his junior. Carta Geographica do Estado de S. Paulo.

We have received the first sheet of the map of the state of São Paulo according to the surveys of the Commissão Geographica e Geologica under the disection of Dr. Orville A. Derby. This sheet covers the district extending from Santos on the south to São Paulo and Mogy das Cruzes on the north. The triangulation was under the direction of Mr. H. E. Williams. It is probably the first map drawn from accurate surveys in South America, and both in detail and finish is a credit to the commission under Dr. Derby's charge, Other sections, we understand, will soon follow, and in time São Paulo will enjoy the distinction of possessing an accurate map of the state.

Treenty-sixth Annual Report of the Council of the Corporation of Foreign Bondholders, for the year 1898-99. Issued August 1899. This issue inclindes the new charter of the Corporation, which received royal assent on 25th July 1898. For the first time, we believe, Brazil begins to figure in this record of defaulting states and companies—the Itauna railway (now União Sorocabana-Itauna) 6 per cent first mortgage debentures not having been paid since January 1898. The coupons up to that time were constantly in arrears, and those of July 1898, January 1899 and July 1899 are in default. According to a letter addressed to President Campos Salles 27th February 1899 (unanswered) the Sorocabana company has failed to redeem its bonds since January 1893, and has defaulted on its debenture coupons for 1898 and 1899.

RIO DE JANEIRO, SEPTEMBER 26th, 1899.

Thus far the prime source of life for this country has been its commerce few great industries, such as the produc-tion of coffee, sugar, rubber, tobacco, etc., have contributed to the wealth of etc., nave contributed to the wealth of the planters and their sales for exporta-tion have furnished the government with ample facilities for remittances abroad in settlement of national obligaabroad in settlement of matohia objections, while the duties levied upon such exports have furnished an abundant revenue. But the principal source of revenue, however, has been the foreign commerce of the country—the import duties levied on what we eat, drink and wear. The economic conditions of the country have heretofore compelled Brazil country have heretofore compelled Brazii to import almost everything needed for the common uses of life, such as clothes, bread, shelter, etc. In the last decade, however, under the stimulating influence of protective duties, a great many industries have sprung up to supplant the expensive imported product, and the result has been a great loss of revenue without much gain for the consumer. As no special taxes the consumer. As no special taxes were at first levied on the national product, the loss to the revenue was total, and in seeking compensating sources the taxes were still further increased on other imported articles. Recently the necessities of the national treasury have led to the imposition of consumption taxes on these national products nave set to the imposition of consump-tion taxes on these national products and, to compensate them, on similar imported articles. But, to the surprise of the government, these taxes are not producing the results anticipated. Instead of getting more revenue, they are actually receiving less. And any further increase will certainly produce no other result! And now we propose to tell the government once more why it is that increased taxation, in cases like this, will not produce more revenue. It is simply this—taxation has become excessive; it has long since passed the limits of profitable results. The people It is can not afford to pay the prices resulting from taxation and depreciated currency. And they are therefore diminishing from taxation and depreciated currency. And they are therefore diminishing their consumption, and wherever possible they are using inferior articles. If the government and congress do not believe this, let them disguise their identity and come down among the merchants and people and learn for themselves. Let them ask why it is the importers are idle and disheartened; let them talk with the shopkeepers about the volume of their daily sales and the difficulties of collecting accounts; let them go into the small workshops| and offices and ask why their benches are empty and their machines are idle; and then let them buttonhole the landlord's collectors and ask how their tenants are paying up. To state it in another way: Our small industries are decaying, and there is less employment for skilled and unskilled labor; the shops have less to do and are employing fewer hands; the intermediaries in trade are finding less to do and are therefore reducing their expenditures; consequently there is less employer in circulation, diminished let them talk with the shopkeepers about the volume of their daily sales and the difficulties of collecting accounts; let them go into the small workshops| and offices and ask why their benches are empty and their machines are idle; and then let them buttonhole the landlord's collectors and ask how their tenants are paying up. To state it in another way: Our small industries are decaying, and there is less employment for skilled and unskilled labor; the shops have less to do and are employing fewer hands; the intermediaries in trade are finding less to do and are therefore reducing their expenditures; consequently there is less money in circulation, diminished ability to buy even at old prices, and much less at the higher prices caused by new taxation; there is diminished by new taxation; there is diminished buying on the part of the jobber and less importation; and, therefore, there is a greatly diminished revenue from imports. If this statement of the situation is doubted, we will leave it to the merchants of this city to say whether we are right or not. We are earning we are right or not. We are earning but little, and consequently we can buy but little. Increasing taxation will only compel us to curtail expenditures still more: it will increase our sufferings, and will not benefit the revenue. No one wishes to see the government deprived of a liberal revenue—a revenue amply sufficient to meet every necessary. But when it is found that expense. But when it is found that the revenue required can not be raised simply because the people are too poor to supply it, then the wiser course to pursue is to cut down expenditures. If we can not afford to keep up a large army and navy without running into army and navy without running into debt and over-taxing ourselves, then let us reduce them to smaller proportions, or do away with them altogether. There is no possible justification for keeping up these two services when to do so we must ruin commerce and industry and plurge the people into exdo so we inter thin commerce and in-dustry and plunge the people into ex-treme distress, simply to eke out a bare living. There is no credit in a military establishment created and maintained with the life-blood of the nation, and even with such an armed force there is or strength in a nation whose people are discontented and impoverished. Better, far better a nation of prosperous, contented people, than a nation bristling with bayonets and girdled with bristing with bayonets and graded with ironclads. And in the extremity of war, the nation whose citizens are pros-perous and wealthy will have, in the long run, the better chances of victory.

CUSTOMS RECEIPTS.

The following is a comparative statement of the receipts of the five principal custom-houses in Brazil in the eight months from January 1st to August 31st in the years 1898 and 1899:

Rio de Janeiro : 8 months,1898 55,284,472$437 » 1899 49,289,947$139 5,994,525$298 Decrease..... Santos: 8 months, 1898 25,414,897$135 » 1899 19,858,751$800

Decrease.....

8 months, 1898 12, 199, 843 $292 " 1899 10, 530, 449 $330 Decrease..... 1,669,393$962

2,113,937$801

Total decrease at four customes...... 15,334,002$396

Increase...... 3,252,065$291

Net decrease at the five custom-houses...... 12,081,937$105

From the foregoing it will be seen that of the five principal custom-houses in Brazil the only one whose receipts have increased is that of Para and that the net decrease in receipts at the five custom-houses is 12,081,937$105.

It will perhaps be asserted that in and no account whatever is taken of the circumstance that it represents more than the nominal product produced by a common tariff rate. To form a cor-rect conclusion as to the movements of trade, one must ignore the circumstance that 10 per cent of the import duties were collected in gold.

And then, in the second place, the consumption taxes and the collection of part of the duties in gold are a grievous burden on an over-taxed and impoverished people and contribute in no small degree to aggravate the wretched situ-ation of which the decrease in customs receipts is a symptom. Depriving pro-ductive industries of the means re-quired for their development and in many instances for their very existence many instances for their very existence, it diminishes the country's ability to meet its obligations. In our opinion, if meet its obligations. In our opinion, it the government persists in its short-sighted and narrow policy of burden-some taxation and fails to adopt the genuine retrenchment policy which the situation imperiously demands, it will be utterly impossible for Brazil at the end of the moratorium to resume the payment of interest on its foreign debt.

The offer of the Argentine government to send assistance to Asuncion to combat the alleged outbreak of bubonic pest in that city, deserves hearty commendation. An outbreak there is particularly dangerous for Argentina, of course, but still the latter might have declared non-intercourse and enforced it, to the infinite distress of Paraguay. As we all know, the Paraguayans are extremely poor, and are to a certainty wholly unprepared to resist the spread of any epidemic disease. To leave them alone would be to leave them to their own destruction. We are glad, therefore, to see the Argentines offering them assistance. It is an act of generosity that, over and above all motives of self-preservation, reflects the greatest credit upon them.

We have been for some years urging an int-reflects the greatest credit upon them.

We have been for some years urging an international convention in regard to quarantines in order to check the abuses and extortions suffered by merchants and travellers. Now that Argentina is arranging to create a new and costly quarantine station, the necessity for some such convention is all the greater. It is essential, in our opinion, that the power to decree quarantines should be greatly restricted and the countries imposing them should bear all expenses and pay for all losses. This is simple justice, and nothing more. In ninetynine cases of every hundred, the merchant and traveller are innocent victims of these arbitrary restrictions, and it is grossly unjust that they should have to bear all the costs and losses. And very often, quarantines are imposed without reasonable justification, and with more than a suspicion that it is done for the profit of the harpies who run the quarantine stations. Let the government pay the costs and then these abuses will be less frequent.

The pardon of Captain Dreyfus may be stations. Let the government pay the costs and then these abuses will be less frequent.

The pardon of Captain Dreyfus may be accepted as an act of clemency, but it will never be accepted as an act of justice. The civilized world will look upon it as an exhibition of weakness on the part of the government and also as a concession to the military classes. We see by our home papers that many sharp observers stated some time ago that the military court was hostile to Dreyfus, that it paid very little attention to his witnesses, and that the decision would be against him. It was evident that no court composed of military officers would decide against the opinions and wishes of the general staff. But for that wider and better court, public opinion, the testimony was more than sufficient to show that Dreyfus is innocent, and that he has suffered terribly from a conspiracy of ricky, unscrupulous general officers. And public opinion will continue to demand his rehabilitation and the punishment of his persecutors. There can be no compromise in a question of this character, for it involves the moral character of the French army and nation, as well as justice to a cruelly-injured man. Dreyfus has a right to his acquittal, and justice demands the punishment of Mercier and his co-conspirators.

LEGISLATIVE NOTES

| Mulies.—The chamber discussed the political disturbances in Nictheroy. Deputy Cincinato Braga introduced a bill on agricultural banking establishments. Deputy Rodolpho Paixão in a speech on the general revenue bill spoke in favor of reducing the duty on foreign salt. Brazilian salt, he asserted, is unsuitable for curing meat. Deputy Alcindo Guanabara introduced a bill of increasing the salaries of employés of the board of health. Deputy Erico Coelho offered a motion for congratulating the Italian people on the anniversary of the occupation of Rome. The motion was opposed by Deputy Guedelha Mourão.

Sept. 23.—Senale.—The senate voted in 2nd discussion a deficiency appropriation of 39.-952$50 for the war department and one of 50.000$ in gold for the department of foreign affairs. The bill adopting the penal code framed for the navy and extending it to the army was voted in 3rd discussion.—Chamber of Deputies.—In discussing the budget of the department of finance Deputy Iddefonso Alvim criticised the transactions of the government with banking establishments and censured the refusal of the chamber to adopt Deputy Galeão Carvallal 25 motion to ask for information on this subject.

COFFEE NOTES

—The coffee dealers of Porto Rico have sent a representation to the United States government against the injustice done them in the specifications for supplies for the army and navy. These specifications call for Mocha and Java for the officers, and Rio for the men. The dealers claim that the high grades of Porto Rican coffees are finer and cheaper than Mocha and Java, and that the common grades are far superior to Rio. As the Spanish market is now closed to Porto Rican coffee, they claim, and with reason, that a market should be found for them in the United States.

— The Barbacena Sanatorium has been transferred to the Banco da Republica—its principal creditor. By and by the bank will transfer it to the government, of course.

— An increasing state of lawlessness and and political disorder in the states of Rio Grande do Sul, Matto Grosso, Parand, Cearrá and Rio de Janeiro, does not inspire much con-fidence in republican institutions, nor in the national government.

—If there is any satisfaction in looking at a hungry man, the Paulistas can now do it at a milreis the peep. And, it may be said, the money thus paid in will contribute toward his dinners after the trial is over. It is one way of getting a living—without work.

The São Paulo prefect has given orders that theatres and other places of diversion shall be opened to the public only half an hour before the hour marked for beginning the representation. This is designed to prevent unnecessarily long hours for the police.

—The Paraná state assembly proceeded to count on the 20th inst. the votes cast in the gubernatorial election of the 20th ult, and with the result that the official candidate, Dr. Xavier da Silveira, was declared elected. There seems to have been frauds even in the counting.

—A planters club was organized at Juiz de Fóra a few days ago. They appointed a committee to visit the governor to ask for a reduction in the export duties on coffee, a reduction in railway tariffs, and some modification in the mutual traffic between the Central and certain branches.

Both of these crimes are attributed to the opposition party.

—Some time ago the building occupied by the Theresopolis municipal council was burned down, and with it were destroyed the records of the council and the revenue collector's office. A police inquiry just made public charges that the fire was criminal and holds the secretary and escritad responsible, and also accuses the president of the council of being compromised in the matter.

—A romantic case is reported from Porto Alegre. A man there who served as an officer in the Franco-Prussian war, but who had to leave Germany on account of annorous affairs, has been left a million florins by a brother at home. The German consul found him undergoing a term of imprisonment for steading 200 reis, (about three-halfpence) to stave off hunger.—Montevideo Times.

—The Acre provincial government has decreed that the civil, criminal and commercial laws of Brazil shall have full force in that newlycreated state until it can create laws of its own. —The Rio state assembly now trying to sit in Nictheroy seems to find it difficult to maintain a quorum. The attractions of the Rua do Ouvidor are too great for serious legislative work. Were we to say that the average Brazilian legislator does not take his duties seriously and is practically incompetent to fulfill then, we would be accussed of consistent hostility to the country and of being actuated by bitter prejudices. So we shall not say it. We shall leave it to a subsidized sheet to say the contrary — which everyone knows is not true.

—The works of the S. Paulo Railway, Light and Power Co. at the Tieté falls promise to be very important. The company's hydraulic engineer, Mr. Cooper, was to have embarked at New York for Brazil on the 20th inst., and work has already been beguu in clearing the ground at the falls for the edifices and dam, and for the machinery which he has ordered in the United States. Four turbines of 2.000 horse-power each will be used, which will be delivered before the end of the year. It is expected to have 2.000 men employed by the beginning of November, and the work should be completed in eight months.

—The fornal do Commercio says that in the first half of the present year there was a reduction of 1,923,504$41 in the expenditure on the personnel of the Central railway. That is assuredly a step in the right direction.

—The 8ão Paulo prefect has called upon the Viação Paulista tramway company to pay 30,651$755 into the municipal treasury within thirty days to cover the cost of paving within and at the sides of the rails since May 1st last.

—A S. Paulo telegram of the 23rd announced the death of Dr. Salles de Oliveira Junior, president of the Mogyana railway company. His burial on the following day was numerously attended by officials of the state government and of all the railways.

—On the 18th inst. was inaugurated the steam tramway which connects the Funil colony—known as the "Colonia Campos Salless—with Campinas. The São Paulo secretary of agriculture and the German and Portuguese consuls were present. The length of the line is 45 kilometres.

—The president of the Juiz de Fóra municipal council has sent a representation to the minister of industry against the excessive tariffs on coffee on the Central, in which he says that planters of that vicinity are beginning to send their coffee to Areal in carts, to be shipped over the Leopoldina line to Rio, the costs being lower by that line.

—Now that the iconoclasm of the republicans has abated and there is less fear of mere names, would it not bean act of true justice to restore the name «D. Pedro II» to the great railway which was built and protected by the late Emperor? No one will deny the services he rendered to Brazil, and it is only just that public acknowledgment should be made of them.

—Track-laying has been begun on the Leopoldina extension from Areal to Entre-Rios, and will be finished to the latter point in about two months. Some bridges are still to be placed in position which will probably delay opening the line until about the end of the year. The company is already receiving considerable freight traffic from the district about Areal, and will assuredly receive more as the line is extended.

as the line is extended.

—The record for fast railway travelling is held in this country by the Buenos Aires Great Southern, the feat being occasioned on the recent accident to Mr. William White, representative of the company. The special train accomplished the journey between El Puerto and this city in eleven and a half hours, this working out at the rate of sixty five miles an hour. The journey usually takes twenty two hours. This is very good travelling for 740 miles and compares favourably with British and American performances. — Times, Buenos Aires, Sept. 7.

—The traffic receipts of the Leopoldina

Buenos Aires, Sept. 7.

The traffic receipts of the Leopoldina railway for the week ended Sept. 16, were 419,112$600 as against 397,70$$600 in the corresponding week of last year. This increase of 21,40$600 in paper was hampered by a lower exchange this year than last, but nevertheless the conversion into gold reduced the excess receipts of last year over this by £656, and the aggregate receipts for the year to Sept. 16, £3$5,59, are now only £4,29$ less than last year, with every prospect of not only being wiped out, but of showing an increase at the end of the year.

—It is reported thot our sanitary masters intend to put the "Nile" in quarantine again because she brings three Matto Grosso passengers. This will be an unpardonable outrage and merits a prompt protest. There is no proof that the bubonic plague exists at Asuncion and it is not asserted that these passengers stopped there. And if they had, why should the "Nile" go into quarantine for it?

The Lamport & Holt steamer Buffon, left Rio on the 20th inst. for Bahia, Pernambuco and New York, with the following passengers: Messrs, José M. Ferreira, Custodio Couto and wife, Fraucisco V. —Senator Vicente Machado has now gone up into Minas on a visit. It would be interesting to know how many sessions of the present congress this senator has attended. We are still inclined to believe that a pacific solution of the difficulty will be found, which will be just to both parties even if not satisfactory to the jingoes.

—Dr. Pedro Moacyr has addressed a letter to President Campos Salles calling his attention to the case of Dr. Apolinario Porto Alegre, whose personal security is threatened by castillistas in Rio Grande do Sul. There was no man in all our community so sorely missed during his absence, as we have had occasion to say over and over again while he was away. —Mrs. A. J. Hunter of S. Paulo, who arrived by the Olinda from Europe, brought with her some fifteen of her own paintings, chiefly from scenes in her favorite Capri. We have not had the pleasure of seeing Mrs. Hunter's work up to the present, but we hope to do so soon. Artists are fond of Capri, with its heights and its multitudinous steps, and many a famous picture has been shown in the Royal Academy, limning the life of the antiquated town. Mrs. Hunter could not have pitched on a batter place to use her artistic brush.

—The "Associated Presso dispatch from Rio of August 12th, in regard to the festivities in honor of President Roca, seems to be just a trifle out on the unimportant matter of geography. The telegrant, as it appeared in the New York Times, says:—"The members of the diplomatic corps were present yesterday at a review held in the city of S. Christovão, in the state of Sergipe." In another telegram we see that Sr. Dionysio Cerqueira is still minister of foreign affairs, and Admiral Barbosa minister of marine. It looks as though the telegrams were "padded outs in New York, and by persons whose knowledge and scruple are remarkably evenly matched.

—Many of our older readers will deeply regret to hear of the death of Mrs. Weby, who many years ago was well known here and in São Paulo. Her husband, Mr. R. F. Welby, M. I. C. E., was for some time connected with the engineering staff of the São Paulo railway, and afterwards with the Rio City Improvements Co., the Bahia and Minas railway, and with various local engineering works. Mrs. Weby will be remembered by many of our readers as a lady of exceptional refinement, whose hospitality was as boundless as it was gracious. We have many pleasant recollections of her cozy home in Rua Indiana, Laranjeiras, and with many others we deeply regretted her return to England many years ago.

«What I can't exactly understand,» remarks Smalwyt, «is this. If the government did not buy that furniture used for President Roca's staff, why is it sold at auction, and why is the product of said auction turned over to President Campos Salles. Somebody has lied, that's certain. If the furnishers had simply rented the furniture, it could have been returned with rent and indemnification for damages and that would have been the end of it and that would have been the end of it. But it was alleged otherwise; it was only rented. And now it is sold, the money is handed over to the President, and the differences will of course be paid by the Banco da Republica. It's enough to give your brazen contemporary a headache trying to figure it out.»

The army surgeons, however, led by Surgeon-General Sternburg, who visited Rio some years ago to investigate Freire's alleged discovery, has taken the ground that Sanarelli's bacillus is not the cause of yellow fever and is identical with one of the bacilli of hog cholera. Dr. Sternberg quotes from a letter from Dr. Lacerda, of this city, to show that Sanarelli's treatment is a failure.

— Mr. Edward Pellew Wilson, Conde de Wilson, a well known and highly esteemed business man of this city, died at the Hotel das Paineiras, on the Corcovado, on Tuesday the 19th inst. He was born in Bahia on March 31st, 1832, but the greater part of his life was spent in this capital where he was for many years senior partner in the widely known firm of Wilson Sons & Co., now a limited company. He retired from the active management of that business some years ago, and has since devoted his time and energy more to financial matters. Like many others among the best people in this city, he was arbitrarily arrested in 1894 by orders of the government of Floriano Peixoto, and was held in custody for several days. One of his first acts on being released, we are informed, was to secure the release of an invalid fellow prisoner, to whom imprisonment meant excrutiating torture. Mr. Wilson's funeral, from his Laranjeiras residence, was largely attended by the best people of this capital. the 19th inst. He was born in Bahia on March

BUSINESS NOTES

- —The deputies have adopted an amendment doubling the stamp-tax on artificial mineral
- —We are glad to see that the deputies have decided to impose a consumption tax or artificial wines.
- —On the 23rd inst. an amendment to the revenue estimates reducing the taxes of tobacco and cigars was rejected.
- -According to the proposed changes in the tariff, there is to be an increase of 1$000 in the duties on pine, regardless of quality or value
- —Decree No. 3,405 cancels the grant made by Decree No. 719, of Sept. 5, 1890, to Charles H. Ward for working gold and other mines in the municipal district of Cuyabá.
- —A contract has been celebrated between the municipality of Jahú, S. Paulo, and Srs. Rufino de Almeida and Trajano de Medeiros for the electric lighting of that town.
- -The senate has sustained the prefect's veto of the municipal resolution conceding a 40 years' exclusive privilege to William Reid & Co. for the supply of electric power in this city.
- -On the 21st inst. the Andorinhas spinning —On the 21st 11st, the Andorninas spinning and weaving factory again went to auction, the valuation having been reduced from 70S, 400$ to 573.804$. There were still no bids, and on the 5th prox. the factory will be sold at any price offered by the highest bidder.
- -It is stated that the furniture used by a part of Gen. Roca's suite at building No. 192
 Rua das Laranjeiras has been sold at auction for the net sum of 55,3005, which is said to be equivalent to about 60 per cent. of the original cost. The cash was paid over to the President.
- —The following very pertinent letter to the minister of finance on the question of «Cambio," and signed by "Merchant," appeared in the Jornal do Commercio on the 23rd inst.: « A firm with large capital and unlimited credit at the back of it, cannot speculate in exoff at the back of it, cannot speculate in ex-change without losing said credit, while spe-culators who have failed to pay differences within the last two years are given every facility by the Banks to grakes the market as they think fit, to the detriment of legitimate trade. In no other city in the world would such an anomaly be tolerated, and it is high time that Rio acted in accordance with the other cities.

—An amendment to the revenue estimates adopted in 2nd discussion on the 23rd provides that agricultural and mining machinery and implements imported direct for use will pay only a «registry» tax of 5 per cent on the official value, being exempt from all other customs taxes. This will be advantageous to planters and miners, but it will tend to further embarrass commerce. embarrass commerce.

—The exports from Ceará to foreign countries from April 1st to June 30th 1899 were as follows:—carnauba (vegetable wax) 25,952 kilos valued at 38,2595000; dried and salt hides, 256,350 kilos valued at 806,1405000, maniçoba seeds, 282 kilos valued at 12,0005000, maniçoba seeds, 282 kilos valued at 14,05000; and other articles 103 kilos valued at 8205000; total 870,3305000.

-It looks as though the municipal council of São Paulo had succeeded in covering that of São Paulo had succeeded in covering that city with concessions for the distribution of electric power before the American company is ready to operate. This is how adderma-assist the introduction of foreign capital. It looks like a conspiracy to corner the American company and compel it to pay altraxas for the future privilege of supplying power.

-The French national office of foreign com merce has received a series of samples of regetable fibres from Brazil, which have been for some time open for inspection at the office. Subsequently they are to be sent, on application, to interested chambers of commerce, and other commercial institutions. The same office has also received samples of anana fibre from Java.— Textile Mercury, Aug. 12.

-The refusal of the minister of industry to permit the use of postcards containing views of permit the use of postcators containing views of Brazilian scenery, shows the illiberal spirit which governs men in public life. He con-siders the postal service as a monopoly in which the government has an exclusive right to manufacture stamps, stamped wrappers, stamped envelopes, postcards, etc., and he is unwilling to yield one jot of that monopoly.

-At a conference between the minister of finance and the relator of the tariff commission nnance and the relator of the tariff commission of the chamber, on Friday last, it was resolved that the import duties on wheaten flour should be 25 to 50 refs per kilo, the commission proposal being 35 to 50. The minister apparently wants a wider range to meet the possible emergencies of commercial treaties. No change was made in the commission proposal regarding wheat, which is to pay 15 reis per kilo.

—On Wednesday and Thursday there were meetings of business men at the Exchange building. At the first of these meetings, at which the proposed new consumption taxes were discussed, it was resolved to constitute the officers of the Associação Commercial into acommittee authorized to attempt to obtain modifications in some of the most objectionable features of the proposed taxes. At the second meeting the business men present discussed the proposed changes in the customhouse tariff. From this discussion resulted a petition asking congress to take no hasty action in this matter, which is a very serious question requiring mature consideration. Congress is reminded in this petition that repeated changes in the tariff are not expedient, that the present tariff has not yet been sufficiently tested, that to make the proposed changes without consulting business men would be to treat them with contempt unprecedented in the history of the country, that in addition to the to per cent. of import duties now collected, making a total of 15 per cent., that new consumption taxes, some of which are very burdensome, are in contemplation and that the present occasion, in which the commercial and financial situation has become much more critical, is entirely inappropriate for the proposed changes. Some other questions relating to the business interests of the country were incidentally discussed at the two meetings.

—The fornal do Commercio of Sunday reproduces the following ill-tempered extract -On Wednesday and Thursday there were meetings.

—The Jornal do Commercio of Sunday reproduces the following ill-tempered extract from the Commercio do Amazonas (Mandos), of August 29th: a We have serious news from the Rio Negro. The North Americans—the everlasting countrymen of Todd—are carrying on a scandalous trade in our territory without the slightest authorization. They have two steamers, after the manner of our own Sabiá and America, which are navigating the waters of Venezuela and Brazil for trading purposes. These steamers came in pieces up to Cachocira, where they were put together. They come after our rubber, especially in Cabidy', and carry it to the United States by way of Venezuela. The rubber of a Spaniard named Level, who has resided in Brazil for the past nine years, and who is supplied by a firm in this city, Arauja Rosas & Co., has all this year gone to North America. Level is the friend and chum of the Americans, carrying on business with them. The steamers bring American merchandise and sell it in Brazilian territory at 5 per cent. less than ours. It is a contraband trade which can not continue, an inadmissible coasting trade. On the Cuculy frontier there is only one official and two soldiers with worthless arms. What can we do? The Americans are coming far below our frontier to carry on their trade, showing contempt for our laws. We shall return to the subject, which demands serious measures from the government of the republic.

Like all the other complaints from Amazonas, the foregoing is undoubtedly agross exaggeration. If we are not mistaken, the steamers in question were designed to trade on the Orinoco, and if so it may be assumed that they have never appeared on the Negro.
