—General Julio Roca continues in a low state of health, and many important functions have had to be deferred in consequence. —Foot and mouth disease is reported to be steadily spreading over Urugury. Fortun-ately it is of a mild character, and the death rate is said not to exceed 8 per mil.

rate is said not to exceed 8 per mil.

—The Argentine government, it is said, has rejected an offer of Ausido to sell another cruiser, now partly finished. One «Garibidio is apparently enough, even for Argentina.

—On April 1st the British Hospital at Montevideo had 17 patients under treatment. During the month 20 patients were admitted, 18 were discharged and 2 died, leaving 17 under treatment at the end of the month.

—It seems to be still undecided whether President Roca will visit the Pan-American exposition at Buffaio, or not? If he can not do it without a convoy and suite, such as he brought to Rio, the expense will probably prove to be an obstacle.

—Monsignor Sabbatucci, the new papal —Monsignor Sabbatucci, the new papal nuncio to the Argentine republic, was officially received by General Roca on the 16th inst., when he presented the green palm that was used by the Pope himself on Palm Sunday as a special gift to the General's daughter, who recently married Sr. Demarchi.

—An Italian baron has run away with a Russian princess' jewels up in Paraguay. What the aristocracy are doing up in the unrefined beckwoods of Paraguay we can not imagine. The simple natives up there will hardly appreciate the customs and manners of polite society as illustrated by these incidents.

—During the first quarter of 1900 the official value of imports at Buenos Aires was $44,691, 648 gold against $29,821,072 gold during the same period in 1899. The official value of exports was $52,681,112 gold against $47,532,892 during the same period list year. The import of specie was $2,992,918 gold and exports $65,671.

— Congress has decided to form a new province in the Pampa, the capital being Baldia Blanca. We should like to have the Argentine registrar general's report on the population of the new province, as our own experience from the new capital to the Rio Colorado, the Rio Neground on to Nequenis that of a silent—not howling—wilderness. Those who lack consciences should put in for posts as juez de paz in the districts of the new province.

—In Calle Rivadavia number 7000 and odd a clandestine cigar factory has been found, which, it seems, has defrauded the revenue for a long time; 1,200,000 cigars were found ready to send out and none of them had the tax stamp on them. It is said by an evening paper that the owners of the factory were related to a member of the government and tried to use their influence to escape scot free. However, they will be punished severely.—
Buenos Aires Herald.

—The samitary commission from Police 1.

"The sanitary commission from Buenos Aires, which was appointed to enquire into the bubonic outbreak in Rosario, received orders on the 20th inst. to return to Buenos Aires, the cases having come to an end. Rosario is by no means a clean city, but from its healthy position its inhabitants enjoy good health for the most part. The bubonic plague has been no more prominent there than in Rio, but typhoid fever is answerable for a large percentage of deaths.

large percentage of deaths.

— Judge Freuch has sentenced Passo, the ruffian who murdered Ramayon in January 1898 at the Café Adela, Palermo, to ten vears imprisonment. An appeal has been made as this sentence is considered very severe for a mere murderer. — B. A. Hevald. (Poor fellow! Why punish him at all? He's only a poor savage, and probably will kill another as soon as he is free! Let him go, by all means, and give him an indemnity for the cruel imprisonment which he has already suffered!).

—Congress should study the history of the government of the city of Washington before adopting a form of government for this capital. The best of the many forms has been the one now in force which is that of three commissioners with no legislative body, and that is what we want. —Buenos Aires Herald. Better not offer any such advice, colleague, for it will invariably lead to failure. There has been an immense amount of such study up here, and it invariably leads to impossible results. Anglo-Saxon models will not suit Latin views and requirements, and their adaptations are simply unworkable. — Ed. News.)

—So far as we have noted the rich men of this country have carefully guarded their

They have not learned the art of giving which —The Argentine minister of agriculture has ordered the director of the national library to compile a book containing a description of the republic, an essay on its intellectual, social and economic progress and other information. The book must be ready by July 31st and will be in Spanish, English and French. The object of the book is to spread a more correct knowledge of Argentina throughout Europe, for which purpose all unpleasant facts, that might deter immigration or represent the country as semi-civilised, will be carefully eliminated. — Montevideo Times. (When the book is published, some well-informed resident of the country should publish a criticism narrating the corruption, the crimes, judicial failures, police aggressions, fiscal impositions, and all that. The emigrant should see the dark side of Argentine life as well as the bright side.)

—According to the Siglo of vesterday it is dark side of Argentine life as well as the bright side.)

—According to the Siglo of yesterday it is already certain that six leading European frims will present tenders for the construction of the new port of Montevideo on July 31st the date fixed for the opening of tenders. Mr. Gnérard, it is added, has concluded the drafting of the definite plans for the port, as also of the modifications introduced in the conditions for tender. Five hundred copies of these are being printed in Paris, and will be distributed in the proper quarters. Copies will arrive here at the end of the month. Two French engineers, MM. Thomas and Craver have just arrived here, in representation of a nucleus of important French firms and capitalists, to study the matter on the spot and report to their principals, Tenders are also expected from two leading houses of Berlin and Hamburg, who have been induced to interest themselves by Herr Kummer, one of the directors of the surveys. The German minister of commerce is also said to be exerting himself to induce German firms to interest themselves in the business. — Montecideo Times, May 12.

—In April, 1899, in a bowling alley in Calle Sur lose there were a sintered to the called there were interested to the surveys.

themselves in the business. — Monlevideo Times, May 12.

—In April, 1899, in a bowling alley in Calle San José, there was a violent quarrel over some trivial incident, between the two men Jun Gracioso and Felix Faldenique. A kaile was used, and Faldenique was severely stabbed in two places, dying from the wounds some days later. Gracioso fled, and was not captured without considerable trouble. What happened in the first trial we do not remember, but in the second he was found guilty and sentenced to the punishment (quite inadequate) of nine years' imprisonment. The third and last trial has just taken place before the Superior Tribunal. The verdict was substantially to the effect that it was anot provene that Gracioso was the author of the wounds. In accordance with this the judges acquitted him, at the same time expressing their disagreement with the finding, which is equivalent to saying that they believe the man was guilty of the murder and ought to have been punished. It is useless to comment on this, as it is only repeating remarks which we have to make almost daily. It is merely one of the innumerable cases of murder left unpunished because juries scaudalously fail or refuse to perform their duty. — Montevideo Times, May 11.

—A man is rarely if ever honest because loonesty is the best policy. If pumished because Julies schaladously lander refuse to perform their duty.—Montevideo Times, May 11.

—A man is rarely if ever honest because honesty is the best policy. If he is a born cheat he will be a born cheat, whether in the gutter or in the palace. If he be born a mean, sordid, hypocrite he will be mean and sordid to the end of the chapter. The duckegg that a hen devotedly hatches will not result in a chicken, but in a duck, and despite the frantic cluckings of the step-mother that duck will take to the water. You cannot make the man with a mean strain in him, with a moral blight on him, inherited from generations of degenerates — you cannot make such a man decent. But you can ask society to be sufficiently self-respecting to keep him in his place. Self-respect in the community, as in the individual, is the consequence of the development of certain virtues which require cureful nourishment. If you make war against one of the chief agencies by which the social as well as the personal virtues are developed, what can you expect? Clearly, the relative absence of such virtues and the natural consequences of their absence. For years we have allowed the main chance to be practically held up to society here in Buenos Aires as the only religion worthy of our devotion — and now every other day we have sasuntos ruidooss in which spersons conocidass figure so conspicuously and so lamentably. But the remedy is in our own hands.— Southern Cross.

THE SIEGE OF FORT CHABROL.

THE SIEGE OF FORT CHABROL.

"While th' thrillin' scenes I'm tellin' ye about is goin' on, Hinnissy, worse is bein' enacted in beautiful Paris. In that lovely city with its miles an' miles iv sparklin' restrants, —la belly Parce, as Hogan 'd say,—th' largest American city in th' wurruld, a rivolution's begun. If ye don't believe it, read th' papers. They've arrested a pote. That was all rright; fr Forrance is sufferin' frim too much portality that von't. They ought to be a rule f'r th' polis to pinch anny pote caught point greatly that won't. They ought to be a rule f'r th' polis to pinch anny pote caught point green th' hours it welve an' twelve. But th' mistake th' chief iv th' polis made was to r-run in a butcher at th' some time. What th' butcher done I dinnaw; but annyhow they accused him iv wantin' to poleaxe th' governmint; an' they thrun him into a cell. Now th' butcher he had a frind be th' name iv Guerin,—an Irish name it is, but this laad don't appear to be wan iv us,—Jools Guerin. He was wanst in th' thripe business; but he is now r-runnin' a mewspaper, like most iv th' neonle iv Frrance. As a thripe butcher, his He was wanst in th' thripe business; but he is now r-runnin' a newspaper, like most iv th' people iv Pr-rance. As a thripe butcher, his circulation was larger an' among a betther class than his newspaper. Bein' a la-ad with a fine since iv gratichood, an' havin' been wanst fed an' clothed be a Jew man, he calls his pa-aper th' Anti-Jew; an' its principle; swhin ye see a Jew, hand him a crack in th' jaw. Tis a good principle, though I wanst knew a man be th' name iv Solomon Felsenthal, that was known in th' ring as Mike Gallegher, th' Tipp' rary Cyclone, as a thribute to th' feelin's iv th' pathrons iv spoort; an', if Jools had thried to carry out his platform with Solly, they'd be no siege in Fort Chabrool. Not anny. That Jew man'd been champeen iv th' wurruld if all iv him cud've kept out iv close quarthers with th' man again him.

kept out iv close quarthers with th' man again him.

"I don't quarrel with Jools' feelin's, mind ye. Tis th' histhry iv th' wurruld that th' Jews takes our watches fr' mu sbe tin per cint a month, an' we take thim back be means iv a jimmy an' a piece iv lead pipe. They're on'y two known methods iv finance,— bankin' an' burglary. Th' Jews has th' first down fine, but all th' rest iv th' wurruld is at home in th' second. So Jools's all r-right as a far as he goes. But he don't go far.

at home in th' second. So Jools 's all rright as a far as he goes. But he don't go far.

"Well, whin Jools hear-rd that his frind th' butcher was sloughed up, he wint fairly wild. He says to himsilf, he says, I'll go home, he says, i'an' defy th governmint, he says. 'But,' he says, I'll start a rivolution,' he says, so's so prevint disordher, he says. 'So he wint to th' chief iy polls, who was an ol' frind iv his,—they was in th' same newspaper office or thripe derity or something,—an' th' chief kissed Jools, an' asked him what he cud do fir him. 'I wish, 'said Jools, 'ye'd sind down tin or a dozen good men in uniform an' a few detectives in citizen's clothes,' he says.

"I'we asked some ladies an' gintlemen to a five o'clock rivolution at my house,' he says,' an' I'd like to be sure they'il be no disordher,' he says. 'Well,' says th' chief, 'twill mot be aisy,' he says. 'Ye see th' prisident—I f'rget his name—has been asked to go to th' rraces with some frinds,' he says, 'an' they will prob'bly thry to kill him,' he says. 'We have to protect th' low as well as th' high,' he says. 'I'll do what I can f'r ye, me ol' frind,' he says, 'I'll do what I can f'r ye, me ol' frind,' he says, 'Give us th' best ye have,' says Jools; 'an', if ye've nawthin' to do a'ther ye close up, ye might dilrop in,' he says, 'Cone just as ye ar-re,' he says. 'Th' an informarivolution,' he says.

"An' away he wint. At sharp five o'clock th' rivolution begun. Th' sthreets was dinsely packed with busy journalists, polis, sojers, an'

ASSOCIATION CRICKET.

A very interesting match took place at Icarahy ou Sunday and resulted in a win for the River Plate Bank by a narrow margin of 10 runs. The Plate team batted first, and made a sensational start, losing five wickete for 7 runs, but the next vicket fell a 18 and the seventh at 60 and the full score amounted to 124, out of which Conolly scored 60 runs and H. Hargreaves 25.

The Brazillan Bank then went in and runs came at a great pace from the bats of Rolls and Wright, who knocked up 73 before Wright was howled by Francis for a well played 19. Blake followed in and made 11, but Rolls went on scoring and was eventually howled by Francis for a good contribution of 60. The remaining wickets fell rapidly and the innings closed for 114. The River Plate with 34 hour to play started their second innings with Tootal and Conolly and when time was called had lost 6 wickets for 52, all of which fell to Wright's bowling.

The scores were:

Played at Santos 14th inst., and won by the hone-club after a well contested game. Crewe played a patient innings for São Paulo and Burgos did well for Santos. Toulinson is to congratulated on his bowling, taking all the Paulistas wickets except one, this analysis being S wickets for 40 runs. Burgos kept wicket well, otherwise the fielding of the Santistas was very poor, and must improve immensely before they can hope to meet with any success against their opponents.

Tea, kindly provided by Mrs. Barham, added much to the enjoyment of a good day's cricket.

The electric bonds are still an all-absorbing topic of conversation. "Have you been in the new bonds yet?" is a question as much used as interrogations on the value of the mitreis. The cars are so clean, easy-going and speedy—a contrast in every respect to the mule-drawn caravans, that there is some pleasure in travelling in them. At night they are so brilliantly lighted that they seem to flash along the dim streets, like "fery meteors athwart the darkened sky," and inside them newspaper reading is as easy as in the day-time. The speed is refreshing; at times, when the state of the traffic permits, there is a sharp run which exhibarates with what Le Comte de Monte Cristo termed, "le plaisir de vitesses." The pickings of a conductor should be reduced to a minimum, for when receiving a fare, he has to pull a cord which rings a bell and registers the numbers on a big dial; for defaulters it will be a case for a the dear innocent things to be asked to "pray come with a ring." Two defects are, that the arrangement of seats built to hold four people comfortably, is expanded into the familiar legend "to seat five," and that the incessant sounding of the warning bell is a trifle jarring to any possessed of weak nerves. Two improvements may be somewhat disconcerting at first to those accustomed to the regulation of the seat should be required to the regulation of the seat and the seat of the regulation of the seat and the seat of the regulation of the warning bell is a trifle jarring to any possessed of weak nerves. São Paulo is once more possessed of a theatre. Since the burning of the São José three years ago, the tin Polytheama has had to serve as a makeshift. Dr. Penteado's new little theatre is ready for use and is waiting for the artistes of the Sunsone company to commence operations, or rather operas. Saturday was to have been the first night, but the lateness of the steamer has deferred it till May 24rd.

Our friend the Diario has been again drawing on its fertile imagination for a London's telegrams. It apparently thinks that Englishmen repeat Ladysmith day exuberations on every success, for it a telegraphs a that on receipt of the news of the occupation of Kroonstad, the streets were filled with men waving banners and singing God save the Queen and that the local Roberts had to break up these demonstrations for fear of riots.

The dedication of Mr. Dooley's last book, and the Hearts of His Countrymens is significant. It says: "To Sir George Newnes, Bart., Mesars, George Routledge & Sons, Limited, and other Publishers who, uninvited, presented Mr. Dooley to a part of the British public." In the preface Mr. Dooley says: "The author may excuse the presentation of these sketches to the public on the ground that, if he did not publish some of them, somebody would, and, if he did not publish the others, nobody would."

WAR BABIES.

The Western Mail recently had an amusing article on the giving of war mames to babies. It is hard on the babies that they should have to bear all their lives the earmarks of a fleeting war fever, and in many cases the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children might almost have cause to intervene. Fortunately for the newly-born generations, many of the names of battlefields are unsuitable. No parent would condemn a child to the name of Omdurman or Dargai. These are available only for villas. But during the Crimean war Almas and even Balcalavas were plentiful, and some of them may be living still. There is one case on record in a provincial town in the West in which a baby was christened Alma Balaclava lukerman; happly for the poor little war laden creature the fall of Sebastopol was deferred for a time, or that name would have been added by the patriotic parent. Wales just now seems to have caught this kind of fever badly, and the Western Mid gives some amusing results, amongst which are a Tugela james, a Modder River Jones, a Kimberley Clifford, a John Redvers Baller Thomas, a Harry White Redvers Joseph, a William Symons Redvers Jenkins, and a Zachariah John Redvers Jones. But one of the most comprehensive christening combinations is an Exckief Methuen Macdonald Baden-Powell Williams. Even poor little baby girls have to suffer, for there is a Jenny Ladysmith Jones and a Violet Ladysmith Phillips. Cannot the R. S. P. C. C. do something?

THE VENEZUELAN SETTLEMENT.

It seems that the Venezuelan question, of which it is pretty safe to say that almost everybody in this country had got heartily tired, is not yet settled after all. The Brazilian foreign minister has protested strongly agains, the award. When the arbitrators met in Paris the Brazilian government made reservations as to the rights of Brazil, and now overs that when the Tribunal issued its award fixing the boundary between Venezuela and British Guiana through territory in the upper reaches of the Rios Takuta and Cotinga. the line passed through its territory. Brazil has a treaty of limits with Venezuela, dated 1890, which stipulates that their common frontier should follow the line of the Pacaraina in such manner that the waters flowing towards the Rio Branco belonged to Brazil. The award, says the Brazilian foreign minister, thus presumes that Venezuelan territory extends to the other sides of the Cotinga, and Takuta, incontestably Brazilian, and to the meridional slopes of the Acaray chain, solely disputed against Brazil by France, and which at this very moment is in controversy between those two countries before the Swiss federal council, Brazil contends that the decision of the tribunal has gone beyond the strict arbitral jurisdiction between the two powers which constituted it; but states, however, that the decision has no prejudicial effect in international law as touching Brazil's claim to territory awarded to British Guiana, which remains to be settled in the fortucoming arbitration as to boundary agreed upon in March last year. — Commercial Intelligence, April 7.

RIO DE JANEIRO, MAY 22nd, 1900.

It is to be hoped that the president of the Associação Commercial will succeed in his effort to induce the minister of finance to maintain the good faith of the government in regard to registered trademarks. If the minister refuses, then the matter the minister refuses, then the matter should be at once taken to the courts, in order to prevent further discredit in order to prevent further discredit to the country through such breaches of contract. It is indisputable that the registry of a trademark for a term of years—and labels in Portuguese constitute a very important percentage of them—constitutes a contract of the most binding description. By an international agreement the By an international agreement the government has undertaken to protect such trademarks when properly registered. It has made its own rules and regulations regarding such registry, and they have been complied with. The government, therefore, is under the strongest obligation to protect them and to keep good faith with the proprietors of the marks. The simple fact that congress has passed a provision of law prohibiting the importation of merchandise bearing Portuguese labels, can not invalidate the contract made with those who have registered these trademarks. Hundreds of foreigners have developed valuable commercial relations with Brazilian markets by adapting their manufactures to the wants and requirements of the people, and have taken the trouble to label their goods and proparations in Porgovernment has undertaken to protect wants and requirements of the people, and have taken the trouble to label their goods and preparations in Portuguese, so that their customers can read them. These labels have been registered as trademarks in accordance with the law. By what right then can congress and the executive now forbid the use of such labels? Is there no continuity in legislation and administration in this country? Are we to understand that each new govwe to understand that each new government can reverse the acts of its predecessor, and that the merchant and manufacturer must bear the prejudices without appeal? If this is the case, then let us know it, so that foreigners may no longer incur expense in their commercial relations with Brazil, as there is no protection for the rights which they may secure. for the rights which they may secure.

THE DECREASE IN REVENUE.

In spite of the confident tone in which the President in his message refers to the finances of the country, it is impossible to disguise the constant is impossible to disguise the constant decrease in the product of the old taxes and the failure of the new taxes to produce the revenue expected of them. When it was decided to collect in gold 10 % of the import duties, it was estimated in the budget that the gold receipts from this source would amount last year to 22, 200,000\$. But in reality, as we learn from the President's message, they amounted to only 18.483. as we learn from the Fresident's message, they amounted to only 18,483, -225, or 3.716.775, (over 20° $|_0\rangle$ less than the estimate. The total gold receipts of the custom-houses amounted last year to 18,897,217\$, equivalent to a monthly average of 1,576,968\$.

For the present year the showing is, thus far, still worse. Although the proportion to be collected in gold was increased from 10 θ_0 to 15 θ_0 , returns for the first quarter of the year show gold customs receipts to the amount of only 4,516,9928, or a monthly average of 1,505,664$.

In the budget for this year the gold receipts of the custom-houses are timated at 27,506,000$, equivalent timated at 27,506,000$, equivalent to a monthly average of 2,292,166$. Consequently, for the first quarter of the present year, the average monthly receipts in gold were 71,304$ less than the monthly average for last year (when only 10 %) of the duties were collected in gold) and 786,502$ (or over 31 %) less than the monthly average estimated in the budget for this year.

For the month of April the showing, though somewhat more favorable than for the previous three months, is far from corresponding to the budget es-from corresponding to the budget estimate. At the 12 custom-houses of Rio de Janeiro, Santos, Pará, Pernambuco, Bahia, Maranhão, Ceará, Jaraguá, buco, Bania, Marannao, Centa, Jaragua, Santa Catharina, Victoria, Penedo and Natal, which last year produced over $85\,^{o}/_{o}$ of the gold customs receipts, these receipts amounted last month to 1,422,-101$. If we add to this sum the pro-bable gold receipts of the remaining 9 bable gold receipts of the remaining 9 custom-houses, we shall have a total of 1,670,000$, which is not much over the monthly average when only 10 0 /₀ of the duties were collected in gold and is 622,166$ (over 27 °/0) less than the monthly average estimated in the budget for 1900.

From the foregoing figures it appears From the foregoing figures it appears that the monthly average of gold customs receipts in the last four months was about 1,544,500$. At this rate these receipts for the whole year will amount to 18.558.000$, or 339,217$ less than the amount collected last year, when only 10 %, of the import duties were paid in gold, and 8,948,000$ less than the amount estimated in the budget for 1900.

The showing in regard to currency receipts is not more favorable than that in relation to receipts in gold. In the first quarter of the present year the nrst quarter of the present year the combined gold and currency receipts of the custom-houses and the Rio de Janeiro general revenue office were 43,-690,378$158, against 57,313,646$980 in the first quarter of 1899, and 67,757,-952$534 in that of 1898.

In April the receipts of the Rio do

In April the receipts of the Rio de In April the receipts of the Ko de Janeiro general revenue office and eight custom-houses amounted to 12,195, 755$344, against 14,966,900$971 in April, 1899, and 15,484,063$702 in the corresponding month of the previous

For the first fortnight in May the receipts of the Rio de Janeiro customliouse amounted this year to 2,054,439$05, against 2,659,934$136 in the corresponding period of last year and 3,090,294$500 in that of 1898. Those of the Rio de Janeiro general revenue office amounted to 1,265,379$323 in the first fortnight of this mouth, against 1,287,019$640 in the corresponding period of 1899.

Consequently the combined gold and Consequently the combined gold and currency receipts of the custom-houses and Rio de Janeiro general revenue office, as far as has been ascertained up to the present, amount this year to 59. to the present, amount this year to 59. 205,949$890, against 76,227,501$727 for the same revenue stations in the corresponding period of last year. The decrease is 17,021,551$837, or over

In view of the foregoing figures, it seems to us that even for the sake of immediate revenue, not over 10% of the import duties should be collected in gold. And, as for future revenue, no duties whatever should be collected in duties whatever should be collected in gold, the currency duties and other taxes should be reduced, and the consumption taxes should be abolished altogether; for as long as the development of the resources of the country continues to be retarded by burdensome taxation there can be no considerable increase in revenue. increase in revenue.

IN THE Gazela de Nolicias Senator Antonio Azeredo is publishing a series of interesting articles showing the practical working of the present political system of Brazil. Congressional elections, siys the seartor (and we do not think any one will venture to contradict him), area mere farce, in which the e-inditates of the governors are, with extremely rare exceptions, always elected. These candid tess when they take their sets is in congress, rend riblina obsdience to the orders of the governors to whom they owe their election. Nominally the states are self-governing, but in practice their governors are dependent on the President of the republic, who has the power of granting many favors to such as are subservient and of making untenable the position of those who oppose him. The governors accordingly instruct their congressment to comply with all the wishes of the President, thus becomes entirely absolute. If he commits abuses, the people have no corrective to which they can appeal except revolution.

abuses, the people lake no enfective to they can appeal except revolution.

It is becoming a serious question whether the public shall continue to submit to arbitrary interference of the sunitary authorities in their private affairs. As the matter now stands these interferences constitute a grave abuse. These sanitary inspectors are not selected from the most eminent and trustworthy medical practitioners, but from younger and less experienced men. In a consultation, their opinions would have very little weight with the better class of physicians. And yet, through the mere circumstance that they hold an official position designed to protect the public against epidemic diseases, they assume the right to force their wy into private houses, to interfere with the work of better and abler physicians than themselves, to impose treatment and restrictions on patients under the care of other medical men, to enforce disinfections and removals dangerous to life, and to quarantine healthy people at plessure. All this is radically wrong. If the public is to be subjected to medical rule, then let it be the rule of the wisest and best.

rule, then let it be the rule of the wisest and best.

This prefect of this city in his reply to the representation of the Botanical Gorden transway directors, says that the resolution voted by the municipal council, and sanctioned by himself, authorizes him to make a new contract with the said company, but does not oblige him to do so. In that case, municipal legislation is a screaming farce. A company goes to the council for a contract, months are consumed in the negotiation, all the municipal departments are consulted in regard to the conditions, every possible omus is imposed in consideration of the favors granted, and then the resolution, stipnating all the favors and compensations agreed upon in the negotiation, is formally passed. The resolution then goes to the prefect, who signs it. And then this official holds that the said resolution merely authorizes him to make the contract, which he can refuse to do if it suits him to do so! In that case why did he sanction the resolution? And if he can exact new and additional compensations, why should the council have anything to do with it! The prefect is making municipal government extremely ridiculous.

In accordance with the report of the official making municipal government extremely ridiculous.

In accordance with the report of the official bacteriologist, Dr. Emilio Gomes, and the advice of the director-general of public health, Dr. Nuno de Andrade, relative to the suspected cases of bubonic pest discovered here on the 16th inst., the minister of justice and interior, Dr. Epitacio Pessoa, issued a portaria yesterday in the none of the President declaring this port and city suspected, ordering vessels lerving the port for other Brazilian ports to first proceed to Illu Grande for disinfection and prohibiting the dispatch for other Brazilian ports of the articles mentioned in Art. 30 of the sanitary regulations. This places us again under suntary law, which has become as arbitrary and objectionable as martial law. With all due respect to the professional gentlemen who have discovered the bubonic bacillus in the blood of a guinea-pig after being inoculated with the blood of a grainea-pig after being inoculated with the blood of a grainea-pig after being inoculated with the blood of a person dying of suspeted plaque, we are compelled to say that we do not believe there is any such thing as bubonic pest in this city, nor that there is any occasion whatever for the irritating and prejudical restrictions are clearly bacillus-mad, and the losses caused by their ridiculous restrictions are worse even than any likely to be caused by the plaque. These quarantines are as worthless, besides, as they are prejudicial, and, to speak plainly, they serve no other purpose than to afford extra pay to a few doctors and quarantine employés.

—The new electric transway service in São Paulo has been undergoing a very severe test since its inauguration because of the desire of everybody to patronize it. Thousands of curious people lave crowled the trains, riding out to the end of the lines and back again, merely for pleasure, naturally to the inconvenience of residents of the districts served. And at the city terminus the rush of these passengers to secure seats has been the cause of much inconvenience. In time the movelty will wear off and then these annoyances will disappear.

—There were two trial trips last week over the Central London Railway line, and they were both eminently successful. The tunnel is now complete in every respect, the lines are all laid, and the works for the generation and transmission of power are complete. But there remain many details to be finished at the several stations, such as lifts and the like. It will probably, therefore, be a couple of months before the line will be completely ready for general traffic. In the meantine, it is to be noted that there is to be only one class of carriage, which is certainly a wise decision.
The division into first, second, and third class was perhaps natural when railways were first introduced, but in short lines like this such division would be out of place. Everybody who has travelled on American railways must have recognised how suitable in every way was the accommodation there afforded, where there is only one class. Each carriage accommodates 48 persons—32 at the sides and 16 in the centre. We believe that there will be but one uniform charge of 2d. The matter is not definitely settled, and, of course, the directors may alter their minds. But if we are rightly informed, the present inclination is to fix one uniform charge—5 cents, or 2 ½d.
—and we have never heard any granbling on the part of those who have to travel over so short a distance; while for the whole distance; while those who have to travel the whole distance will be gratified by the very cheapness of the fare.—The Slatist, April 7.

The estimated traffic receipts of the Leopoldina railway for the week ending Msy 12th were 241,6658 in currency, against 252,7148 in the corresponding week of last year, a decrease of 8,0498. The exchange rate was 13/12 d., against 7½ d. last year, which gave a sterling equivalent of £8,570 for the week's receipts, against £7,897 list year, showing an increase of £673. The aggregate receipts since 1st January have been £180,050, against £153,738, showing an increase of £26,312.

On last Thursday the Botanical Garden tramway company ceased giving return tickets to ist class passengers, many of whom have consequently refused to pay their fares, alleging that the company has no right to alter its rates without the permission of the prefect. The company, however, claims that the suppression of return tickets is authorized by a resolution of the municipal council, signed by the prefect, and that no special permission from the latter is required. The prefect has made on the subject an enigmatical statement, which is interpreted as a recognition of the right of passengers to demand return tickets. In law, however, the passenger has no such right. If he rides he must have. If he rides without paying he is committing a trespass. The settlement of the controversy is not with the pissenger, but with the courts.

RIO CLARO S. PAULO RAILWAY.

The directors, in their report for the year ending March 31 last, state that the income of the company arising from the interest on the £2,653,300 five per cent, bonds of the Paulista company, and from the other investments of the company, amounted to £137,010, to which have to be added £33 received for transfer fees and £61 for profit on sale of investments, making a total of £137,105. Deducting therefrom £30,000 for interest on debenture stock and £2,743 for charges in London and income. U.s. there remains a sum of £104,361 as the not revenue for the year. After including the balance of £3,435 brought from last year there remains a sum available of £107,797. The net receints of the Paulista company for 1893 were Rs. 10,415,4705100, and we are informed monificially that those for 1899 amounted to about Rs. 12,012,0005. This, at the exchange of £36, per milreis would represent £100,400, of which only £164,065 is required to provide for the interest and redemption of the bonds held by this company. An interim dividend of 7 per cent, was paid on October 17 last, absorbing £32,500, and the directors now recommend that a final dividend of 7 per cent, (making 14 per cent, for the year) be declared, payable on the 20th inst. This will require £32,500, and leave £2,797 to be carried forward. The reserve fund remains at £10,000. In accordance with the terms of issue of the Paulista five per cent, bonds, all of which are in the hands of the company, 318 bonds of £100 each were redeemed on the st of this month, leaving £2,631,500 of these bonds still outstanding. The proceeds of the bonds now redeemed, £31,800, are being invested. During the past half-year the company has had to pay to the Bražilian government £10,412 for extra transfer tax on the original purchase of the line. This amount should be recovered, and in the mean time has been carried to a suspense account, as shown in the balance-sheet.—Financial News, London, April 11.

investment of capital in river and coasting lines is an exceptionally risky business.

The government has approved the ordinance framed by the national council of hygiene for the medical service of the port. It is substantially as follows: — Every captain or muster of a vessel must report to the sunitary inspection of the port the existence of sick persons (enfermos) on board. Those who are able to land must present themselves to the inspection for medical revision and to obtain a pass to the hospital if required; if this cannot be done, they will be visited on board. Similar rule applies to cases of wounds or accidents on board. Captains requiring a doctor on board in any of the above cases must apply for the same either directly to the inspection or by usual code signal. In case of wounds caused by fighting, the police doctors shall intervene. Any case of contactors to the health authorities. A fine of $i\text{o}$ is established for any infraction of the above. — Montecideo Times, May 12. — (These regulations are arbitrary and will lead to trouble.)

— Minister Murtinho has advised the chief of police that for the fifth time his house on Stuta Therea has been broken into and robbed. It is censurable no doubt, but the minister should sleep at home occasionally and see if he can not catch the regnes. And when he does catch them, it is two to one that they will prove to be prospective consumption tax fiscals, who are merely practising for future work.

— After having given permission for placing automatic gambling wheels all over the city, in cigar shops, shoons, etc., and after having allowed them to run for many anoths, the chief of police now orders their immediate removal and has instructed the police to see that the order is obeyed. —We are very glad to note that Mr. Crawsiak was very pleasantly subprised on the ever of his departure from Rio by receiving several valuable mementos of Rio and his friends. Through the exertions of Mrs. Aspinall and Mrs. Bisset, the mothers of the children who had attended the special services for children at the church, subscribed the handsome sum of 1305 which was expended in a landsome gold-headed came of Amazon snakewood, a fine photograph of Rio and a beautifully mounted otter skin—all characteristic of the country where three vears of his life had been spent. The came had his monogram engraved upon it. The presentation was made at his residence on Tuesday evening last. —A controversy has arisen the past week between the prefect and the Botanical Garden tramway company, the former trying to oblige the company to execute certain coastly improvements in addition to those specified in its new contract, and the company trying to carry the said new contract into force against the prefect's orders, although the said contract has been duly voted and sanctioned. The prefect has signed the municipal resolution authorizing the new contract, and now seeks to introduce an onus not included in the said resolution, justifying himself by the assertion that it authorizes not sobliges him to make the said contract. (In that case a municipal resolution duly sanctioned is farcical and unnecessary.) In consideration of certain improvements, including the extension of electric traction to all its lines and the construction of a second Copacabana tunnel tobth of which are to be opened to the public, the total cost of which will certainly exceed seven thousand contos, the company is granted another thirty years and is permitted to increase its fares by the suppression of return fares at certain hours. And, believing that the passage and sunction of the municipal resolution which specified the provisions of the contract, permitted it to do so, the company last week suspended return tickets and began selling books of tickets at to percent discount, which is of more general utility than the putial and complicated arrangement for return fares at certain hours. The prefect says this is illegal and advices the public not to pay, and a very considerable number of persons who believe that the company has no rights which the municipality is bound to respect, have been riding to and from the city for nothing. The improvements which the prefect lass arbitrarily sought to impose upon the company include the removal of some old buildings and improvement of the shore line on Rua do Russell, and the

— There have been renewed «discoveries» of bubonic pest in this city during the past week, accompanied by arbitrary impositions of the sanitary officials. The first was a Misericordia patient, whose death aroused suspicions and post-mortem investigations. The official bacteriologist took some of the dead man's blood and inocculated two guinea-pigs, which of course made them ill and made our sanitary protectors look preternaturally grave. The next case was a girl of 14 years living with her parents on the Campo d'Acclamação, who fell ill on the 15th with «lymphatite,» according to her physician. Our Friday a sanitary inspector interfered and ordered a rigorous distincation of the house. The girl died the next day. We do not say that the disinfection killed her, but it might have done so. He contends that it is unconstitutional to prohibit the importation of merchandise with these labels.

—A very fruitful source of economy, the minister of finance should know, would be the suspension of newspaper subsidies and of the republication of laudatory and other articles in the paid columns of the press. Just now a series of articles written by José Estevam in the Corrio Paulistano on the alleged monarchist conspiracy, is being widely republished, of course at the cost of the treasury. Why not drop it and save the money?

The beauties of excessive taxation may be seen to perfection just now on the other side of the bay, where the cultivation of vegetables has been given up because of the export taxes on produce brought over to this city, and where hawkers of fruits, vegetables, lenha, etc., are disappearing from the streets because of the burdensome licence taxes imposed. — The owners of the large confectionery at No. 18, Largo de S. Francisco de Paula have proposed an assignment to their creditors. They attribute to the present commercial crisis their inability to meet their obligations. And they might have added that this crisis has been greatly intensified by new and burdensome taxes, which are absorbing money pressingly required by merchants in their business transactions. Does Minister Murtinho want still more evidence?

—There was a meeting of business many contractions.

There was a meeting of business men at the Centro Commercial yesterday to consider a projected reform of the new bankruptcy law, which is causing so much dissatisfaction in business circles. The project is to be sent to congress, where it will doubtless receive very little attention. The law as it stands protects the debtor and renders bankruptcy so easy that creditors really have no protection at law against dislonest debtors. Their only course, if congress reluses to modify the law, will be to sell only for eash on delivery, and we should be glad to see this rule enforced.

—The minister of finance has completed the

we should be glad to see this rule enforced.

—The minister of finance has completed the negotiation with Sr. Julio Benevides for the creation of a tax-collector's post on the Rio Iça, or Putimayo, on the frontier between Brazil and Colombia. Sr. Benavides enjoys a concession for the steam navigation of that river, and naturally he wants no troublesome competition. So he asks for a customs official and offers to pay all expenses himself, which the minister, strangely enough, has accepted. And now the minister of war is asked for a detachment of soldiers to protect the official. Some of these days there will be interesting developments from S. Francisco, which is the name of the new post.

—The custom-house has published the name of the new post.

—The custom-house has published the following statement of the official value of imports at Rio de Janeiro for the 1st quarter of the present year, compared with the corresponding period of 1899;

The decrease was 25,048,929$540, or about 44 %.

FINANCIAL NOTES

-It is said that a great many counterfeit 50$ notes have appeared in this city.

The minister proposes to «stagger humanity» by burning 2,000,000$ next Saturday.

—On March 31st the paper money in circulation amounted to 716,705,618$, showing a decrease of 1,012,611$ during the month.

—Another thousand contos from the minister of finance's imaginary surplus were burned on Saturday last together with 5,000 apolices of the 1889 loan.

—Counterfeit revenue stamps of the denominations of 10$ and 20$ have been discovered in Santos. The great variety and cheap character of these stamps make counterfeiting very easy.

—The Gazeta de Noticias says that the department of foreign affairs economized last year 510,000$ and expects to make next year in its expenses a further reduction of 80,000$ in gold. We take much pleasure in recording the statement, which we trust will be confirmed. If we could only register proportional reductions in the war department, we should hail the opportunity with still more pleasure.

MARKET REPORT.

Rio de Janeiro, 22nd May, 1900. Exports.

Exports.

Coffee.—There was less animation the market last week, the Americans holding aloof and declining to meet the views of local deniers. Toward the end of the week the latter gave way, and again on saturday the week aggregated only 3,000 bags, against 6,000 bags in the preceding week. The receipts were only 2,081 bags, the transportation up country to the railways being somewhat restricted by continued rains which are preventing the marketing of a very confect on the properties of the producers who have no improved machinery, comes to market late in the season, and is easily cut off from the market by bags. Vesterday the market was weak, buyers slowing little inclination to give the prices asked in view of the rise in exchange.

Foreign advices afford little of interest to the trade. The easies repealed were New Yofa, 45000 bags. The exchange of the prices asked in view of the rise in exchange.

Foreign advices afford little of interest to the trade of the results of the season bags for the week, against 104,000 in the corresponding week of last year and 27,000 in the preceding week.

The declined movements of the market during the week were as follows:

come much better.

The illustrious naval surgeon Dr. Henrique Mangeon says that "during voyages on men of war I have had occasion to use Tinture of Nectandra Amara of Mr. Antero Leivas against sea sickness and always with excellent results.

Numberless testimonials of travellers justify the results obtained by these distinguished physicians, with the Tinture and pills of the Nectandra Amara against seasisckness.

sickness.

In order to facilitate the use of this medicine a propectus accompanies each bottle written in the Portuguese, English and French languages.

N. B. The Nectandra Amara pills are formulated with the same doses of the Nectandra, in order that they may be sent by post all over the world with the least pospost all over the world with the least pos-sible delay to supply the want of the Wine Elixir and Tinture of Nectandra Amars, which are liquid and cannot, therefore, be transported by the same rapid and sure means.

For sea sickness, nausea in pregnancy

For sea sickness, nausea in pregnancy impoverishment of blood, weakness of the legs and convulescency after long and sirious illness, the pills should be ground and disolved in a small glass of Port wine in order that they may be taken as a liquid to nsure a prompt action; it is also to facilitate for adults and children who cannot take dry pills, and in this case they can be disolved in pure water if no wine is to be had.

Tropon is pure Albumen; it offers this most important constituent of our daily food in highly concentrated form. The mutritive value of one pound of Trepon equals that of 5 pounds of prime beef or 80-90 eggs.

Tropon is almost entirely assimilated by the system and transformed into blood and muscles, a fact which is of highest importance in those cases where the digestive canal has to be cared for in mechanical respects. (Dysentery, Diseases of the intestines, etc.)

Tropon is very easily digested; it represents a food which without overstraining even the weakest stomach offers a large amount of nutriment. (Por Children, disorders and diseases of the Stomach, Kidneys and the Nervous System, Liver complaints, Convalescents, etc.)

Tropon—by replacing the lost Albumenenables us to arrest the decline of strength caused by fever and infectious diseases. (Vellow Fever, Blackwater Fever, Malaria, Tuberculosis, Typhus, etc.)

Tropon is a tasteless and odorless powder, it can be mixed or baked or cooked with other lood or else can be taken in drinks.

it can be inked on Saketto cooket with other load or else can be taken in drinks, Eminent medical authorities are constantly calling attention to the merits of Tropen. Sold by all Chemists throughout Brazil
